Crocodile population in Bhitarkanika rises to 1698

KENDRAPARA (ODISHA), JAN 12/- The population of estuarine or saltwater crocodiles in Bhitarkanika National Park in Kendrapara district has increased to 1698 from 1682, a forest department official said. Of these estuarine crocodiles sighted during the census this year at the national park, 12 were albino species. "At least 1698 crocodiles including albino species were counted this year along the water bodies of Mahanadi deltaic region. The census figure was 1682 last year," said Divisional Forest Officer, Rajnagar Mangrove (wildlife) Forest Division, Bimal Prasanna Acharya. In 2016, altogether 1671 crocodiles had been sighted. Thus, Bhitarkanika National Park has established itself as an ideal habitat for estuarine crocodiles with their population maintaining a rising graph, Acharya said. Three giant male crocodiles measuring more than 20 feet long were sighted by enumerators. This included a 21-foot long reptile which finds a pride of place in the Guinness Book of World Records as the longest living crocodile, he said. This apart, as many as 40 large size crocodiles measuring 14 to 19 feet were sighted during the annual head count operation conducted between January 3 and 10. The census figure of these animals was released by the forest department early this week. The enumerators found 610 hatchlings, 338 yearlings, 267 juveniles, 172 sub-adults and 31 adult crocodiles in the region crisis crossed by innumerable water inlets, creeks and nullahs forming the Bhitarkanika river system. Stones hurled at Nifish Kumar's cavalcade

*CM unharmed despite intense stone-pelting

BUXAR (BIHAR), JAN 12/- Bihar Chief Minister Nifish Kumar's cavalcade was today pelted with stones while he was on his way to a village as part of the state-wide 'Vikas Samiksha Yatra'. The chief minister was unharmed. An unfazed Kumar, who went on to address a public meeting in Dumraon block, said, "Some people feel disturbed over the commitment to progress of the state. They try to mislead and provoke others but people should not get perturbed over such minor happenings". An official accompanying the chief minister told PTT over phone that some people had hurled stones at the cavalcade but it did not hamper the movement of the cavalcade. He said the cavalcade moved ahead for the village where the chief minister launched a 160 schemes worth Rs 272 crore before addressing public meeting. It was not immediately known who were the persons who indulged in stone-pelting and what was their grouse. The chief minister said, "My purpose is not to run the government from the state capital but to assess ground realities and progress of development schemes so that basic amenities like roads, clean water supply, health care even village, in fact, every locality in the state. If anybody is trying to mislead people about my mission, the publicity will speak for itself and the mission would never get derailed".

He also spoke at length about his mission of ban on sale and consumption of alcohol and the drive against dowry and child marriage as also measures being taken by the government for skill development of the youths so that they got bet-

Govt announces Rs 5 lakh for families of 2 men killed in Dhula

TEZPUR, JAN 12/- The Assam government announced Rs 5 lakh as compensation to the families of two men who died allegedly in police custody and firing at Dhula in Darrang district, even as the curfew imposed yesterday was relaxed for four hours.

Darrang Deputy Commissioner Ashok Barman said the curfew was relaxed from 3 pm to 7 pm in the Dhula area and the situation was under control. Prohibitory orders under Section 144 of the CrPc was promulgated in the area after a mob, which gathered near the police station on January 9, killed a person in police custody turned violent. One person was killed when police opened fire to control the situation. If the situation remains normal, the curfew may be lifted tomorrow, he said. The district administration has ordered a probe into the incident by Additional Deputy Commissioner N N Nath who will submit a report within 15 days, the DC said. Senior Cabinet ministers Parimal Sukla Baidya and Rihon Daimari today attended the last rites of Hasan Ali and Mohammad Thakur at Atakata, about 15 km from district headquarters Mangaldoi, and announced the compensation on behalf of Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal. Baidya said Rs 5 lakh each would be given to the families and that the inquiry ordered by Sonowal yesterday into the incident would start immediately.

Ali (37), survived by his wife and five children, allegedly died in custody at the police station on January 9 night after he was picked up from his home for allegedly possessing illegal arms.

Islam (25), hailing from Atakata village, died allegedly during police firing at Dhula yesterday.

The CM has also ordered a probe into the death of Ali by Additional Chief Secretary MGVK Bhanu.

Patient found hanging in Dhanbad hospital

DHANBAD (JHARKHAND), JAN 12/- A 38-year-old patient who was scheduled to be released today from a state run hospital here, was found hanging there this morning.

Tapan Kumar Bauri's body was discovered inside a toilet of the male medicine ward of the Patliputra Medical College and Hospital (PMCH) by another patient. "At around 6.30 a.m., a patient found him hanging with his muffer in a toilet. He raised an alarm and when Bauri was brought down, he was already dead," PMCH Superintendent Dr. Kameswar Biswas said. The police were immediately informed, Biswas said adding that prima facie it appears to be a case of suicide. "Police investigation and postmortem reports would confirm the reason behind the patient's death," he said. Bauri was admitted at the hospital on January 8 after he vomited blood at his residence. Biswas said the patient has recovered and was scheduled to be released from the hospital today on request of his son. Bauri's wife Mala and son Sunil had been with him in hospital since Monday. Sunil said, "He did this when I was sleeping and mother had gone to the ladies' toilet. This is strange as he appeared happy at night." (PTT)

Khandu urges Centre to prioritise rail connectivity to Arunachal

ITANAGAR, JAN 12/- Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Pema Khandu today urged Union Finance Minister Arun Jaitley and Railway Minister Piyush Goyal to prioritise rail connectivity to the state in this year's Union Budget.

In separate letters to the two Union ministers today, Khandu expressed gratitude to the Centre for giving special impetus to rail and road connectivity to the frontier state, an official communique said. The chief minister said that the Naharlagun Railway Station is currently having all the required amenities to start operations of new train services including Rajdhani Express.

"Considering the ever increasing number of passengers availing the train services and to cater the needs of passengers from different parts of the state, it is felt imperative that introduction of Rajdhani Express service from Naharlagun to New Delhi and vice versa, be taken up. The chief minister also asked for "increasing the frequency of Shatabdi Express between Naharlagun-Guwahati from alternate days to daily service, increasing the frequency of Naharlagun-New Delhi Super Fast Express from weekly to daily basis and it may be rechristened as Arunachal Express", it said. He also urged for introduction of new express trains to and from Naharlagun to Chennai, Bengaluru and Kolkata and introduction of goods train from Naharlagun to Guwahati to boost trading and agri-horti produce may be included in the Budget. Naveen writes to PM for immediate establishment of NINEI

BHUBANESWAR, JAN 12/- Odisha Chief Minister Naveen Patnaik today sought Prime Minister Narendra Modi's intervention for immediate establishment of the National Institute of New Energy and Innovation (NINEI) in the state. Patnaik's letter to the prime minister comes after the ministry, on November 10, 2016, issued an order to close down the regional office at Bhubaneswar with immediate effect. "I request you kindly intervene in the matter and issue instructions to commence construction of the National Institute of New Energy and Innovation at the earliest. May I also request you to kindly direct the ministry of New & Renewable Energy to reopen the regional office at Bhubaneswar," Patnaik wrote to the prime minister.

"Closure of the regional office may hamper the progress of establishment of the National Institute of New Energy and Innovation at Bhubaneswar," Patnaik said in the letter.

Referring to his earlier letters to the prime minister regarding establishment of the Institute on February 5, 2016, on August 23, 2016 and on May 16, 2017, Patnaik said the state government has already allocated 73.88 acre land for the institute near IT, Bhubaneswar. In addition, one acre land has been identified in Bhubaneswar for the institute's city office, Patnaik pointed out. "I would like to bring to your kind notice that the construction of the institute near IT, Bhubaneswar has not yet been taken up despite grant of advance possession of the required land," Patnaik wrote. Odisha seeks GI tag for Kandhamal turmeric

BHUBANESWAR, JAN 12/- The Odisha government has applied for a GI tag for Kandhamal Haladi (turmeric variety). The golden yellow spice, named after the district where it is produced, has been cultivated since time immemorial and is known for its medicinal value.

The Central Tool Room & Training Centre (CTTC) under MSME ministry, filed the application yesterday with supporting documents and test reports to justify its claim. It was accepted after due scrutiny by the GI Registrar authorities in Chennai. Sach Kanta Kar, the head of IPFC-CTTC, said.

A GI is a sign used on products to have a specific geographical origin and possess qualities or a reputation that are due to that origin. A team of experts, scientists and members of Kandhamal Apex Spices Association for Marketing (KASAM) have carried out research work for over two years on the origin and properties of the turmeric variety with technical guidance from the CTTC and the district administration. "The application, with all supporting documents and test reports, has been filed at GI Registrar, Chennai," Kar said. During field visits and interaction with the farmers, the researchers collected data that could establish the uniqueness of Kandhamal Haladi. Its historic importance and social

Smuggling rare lizards: One held

MALDA, JAN 12/- The BSF has apprehended a man at Farzula PPTS check in Malda district, near India-Bangladesh border, and seized two Tokay Gecko, an endangered nocturnal lizard species, from his possession.

The Border Security Force (BSF) officials had specific information about the illegal transportation of the endangered lizard species to Bangladesh, a release issued by the paramilitary force said. Two teams of BSF officials were stationed at PTS More and 18 Mile, College More, yesterday to look for suspicious activities. The team near PTS More saw two persons approaching them on a bike and intercepted them. The duo immediately tried to flee the spot but the team managed to detain one of them, the release said.

After preliminary questioning, the man identified himself as Md Nasiruddin Sheikh, a resident of Kaliachak town in Malda. The two Tokay Gecko, seized from his possession, were found to be 1.6 feet and 1.3 feet in size. The inspector general of BSF South Bengal Frontier, PSR Anjaneyulu, has asked the field commanders to strengthen vigilance in the wake of the increased smuggling activities and infiltration bids, the release added.
