

Outsiders harming interests of CU students: Partha

KOLKATA, JAN 30 /- West Bengal education minister Partha Chatterjee has expressed concern over the dip in pass percentage in Part-I results of the Calcutta University and said outsiders were vitiating the atmosphere in the institutes. He said, "Outsiders are harming the interests of the students. A group of students, with affiliations to different students' unions, were seen protesting over the poor show in Part-I results on the university campus on Monday. The minister said it was not proper for a student to fail and then demonstrate on the campus. "We have seen outsiders coming to the campus to demonstrate on the issue. We are keeping watch on this. This only harms the future of students," he said. On Monday, Chatterjee was talking to the media after a meeting with Calcutta University pro vice-chancellor Dipak Kar and other senior CU officials in the wake of the poor performance by the BA and BSc Part I (honours and general) students. To a question about what transpired in the talks, the minister said, "I had heard their views. But I haven't made any recommendations." To another question about some undergraduate colleges attributing change in exam assessment rules for the poor show, Chatterjee said, "Let the colleges approach the university if they wish so. If the government intervenes they will say their autonomy was not being safeguarded." The pro-V-C said he has apprised the minister of the developments on the campus. "He has asked us not to compromise on the issue of academic excellence. We will think about steps that need to be taken to resolve the issue at the next syndicate meeting." Of the 64,000 candidates that appeared for the BA Part I (Honours and general stream) exam, just 28,000 have passed, the results published last Thursday revealed. In the BSc stream, around 11,000 students of the total 15,000 that sat for the exam made it.

RJD leaders' presence in Union minister's function sparks speculation

PATNA, JAN 30 /- Senior RJD leaders Shivnandan Tiwary and Ramchandra Purve today joined a human chain formed by the Union minister Upendra Kushwaha, triggering speculations about rumblings of discontent within the NDA in Bihar. Kushwaha, whose Rashtriya Lok Samata Party (RLSP) has three members in the Bihar government, denied any rift in the NDA in the state. Tiwary, RJD national vice-president, stood beside Kushwaha and held his hand as part of the programme. The RJD High School as part of the human chain. Purve, the state unit chief of the RJD, stood on the side of Tiwari at the event where leaders of NDA allies like the BJP and JD-U were conspicuous by their absence. Kushwaha, the Union minister of state for HRD, had organized the event across the state to raise awareness about the need for improvement in public education and the people's right to demand it under the Right to Education Act. Acting Bihar Congress president Kankub Qadir said despite the BJP-led alliance heartedly supporting the human chain event on January 21 organised by the Nitish Kumar ministry against dowry and child marriage, the "cold" response of the JD-U and BJP to the one held by him was a "strong" message to the RJD leader to rethink his continuance in the NDA. "Today's incident was not a fluke. It vindicates RJD vice-president Raghuvansh Prasad Singh's claim that Kushwaha is unready to lead all the RJD members across the state. He has taken note of the indifference shown towards him by his own alliance partners," Qadir told PTI. However,

Kushwaha and the two RJD leaders insisted that no political meaning should be attached to today's event. At a press conference held immediately after the event, Kushwaha said, "We had planned to hold human chain on this day for 30 minutes as one school in every panchayat across the state. The response has been more than we had expected. Since we are coming out in our support", he said. Asked to comment on the absence of JD-U and BJP leaders, the RJD leader said, "All NDA constituents have supported our endeavour. Senior leaders of some parties may not have taken part because of other engagements but ground level workers have contributed in making our event a success". Tiwari told reporters separately that the RJD leader was joined the event to support the cause Kushwaha was pursuing. "Public education system in Bihar is in doldrums and Nitish Kumar ministry has been too busy with its gimmicks on child marriage and dowry to pay attention to these essential matters of governance". BJP state vice-president Mrityunjay Tiwari came down heavily on the RJD for trying to create a rift in the NDA while pretending to support education reforms in the state. He said education was destroyed when RJD ruled Bihar. "Kushwaha is NDA and will remain in the alliance. We are of the view that if he had any concerns regarding education scenario in the state, he should have coordinated with the governments at the Centre and the state since NDA is in power in both places. As far as BJP's non-participation is concerned, I am not sure whether his party had approached for supporting the event," he said. JD-U spokesman Ajay Alok said Kushwaha's cause enjoys the party's moral support. "But the JD-U could not have actively participated in any move which enjoys RJD's backing".

Fire at jute mill

KOLKATA, JAN 30 /- A fire broke out at jute mill here this afternoon, police said. There were no reports of any casualty, the police said. Four fire tenders were pressed into service to douse the fire which broke out at the jute mill on Main Road at around 4 pm. Though the cause of the fire is yet to be ascertained, fire officials said that it could be because of short circuit. "There is a huge stock of inflammable materials inside the mill. Since it is a congested area, we do not want to take any chance and the fire is at the moment under control," a senior officer of the Fire Department said. (PTI)

Arunachal CM launches Measles-Rubella vaccination campaign

ITANAGAR, JAN 30 /- Arunachal Pradesh chief minister Pema Khandu today launched Measles-Rubella (MR) vaccination campaign in the state in presence of deputy chief minister Chowna Mein and his Cabinet colleagues. Khandu said the year-long campaign is a part of an ambitious plan of the state government to eradicate measles and control rubella. Starting February 1, vaccination camps will be set up at educational institutes and community centres across the state, Khandu said.

He appealed to the parents to visit the camps with their children to make this initiative a success. The chief minister also directed the health officials to reach out to every child in the age group of nine months and 15 years. "It is our duty to immunize our children, especially girls, from deadly diseases so that our future generation grows up hale and hearty. I appeal to my fellow citizens to lend their cent percent support to the campaign," he said, adding that the programme aims to vaccinate five lakh children. (PTI)

Dhurguri PS ranks 4th in country

JALPAIGURI, JAN 30 /- Dhurguri Police Station (PS) in West Bengal's Jalpaiguri district has been ranked fourth in the country by the Ministry of Home Affairs. Dhurguri achieved the feat in a nationwide survey conducted by the ministry that declared its results recently. "We are happy that Dhurguri has been ranked fourth. Of all the police stations in the state, names of two had been sent to the agency that conducted the survey—Dhurguri and New Town," superintendent of police Amitabha Maiti said. Dhurguri was ahead of many other police stations in various parameters and was adjudged fourth, he said. The parameters included law and order situation in the area, performance of the police station, sanitation in and around the police station compound, and behaviour of the police personnel with people. A team of the agency that conducted the survey had visited Dhurguri police station last year. Inspector-in-charge Sanjay Kumar said the station's success in Coimbatore had come first in the survey, followed by Panjagutta of Hyderabad, Gudamba of Lucknow, and Durguri police station. (PTI)
