Cong, LF stage walkout from state Assembly

"Why is the state government not allowing us to hold a discussion on such a serious matter? The state police administration had failed to protect the journalists when they were attacked," Chakraborty said.

Assam govt justifies power tariff hike proposal

GUWAHATI, FEB 22 — The Assam government today defended its proposal to hike power tariff, said 80 per cent of the state-run distribution company's annual budget is used for the purchase of electricity. The remaining 20 per cent is utilised for salary, operations and maintenance purposes of Assam Power Distribution Company Ltd (APDCL), the minister of state for power, Pallab Lochan Das, said in the Assembly.

"The power tariff is decided on profit and loss of the distribution company. We need Rs. 5,885 crore for running it this year, out of which 80 per cent will go only for purchase of power," he said. "The power purchase cost is higher in Assam as our own generation is very less. Our transmission cost is very high. Das said. "We are trying to reduce power purchase cost only to meet our expenses," he added.

He also pointed out that power theft is a serious issue in the state and urged the ministers of other departments to look into the issue. "The agriculture department gives pump sets to farmers. These are running, but we are not getting the bills. There are lots of e-rickshaws on the roads and these are being charged everyday. Again we are not getting any bills for that. I request the transport and agriculture ministers also to see these," Das said. Earlier, Assam GMA Parishad (AGP) MLA Pabindra Deka raised the issue of rampant corruption hike by the APDCL and asked why the organisation is not realising the unpaid dues from various government departments. At present, over 5,000 villages in Assam are not electrified, no new projects have started, power theft is rampant, unpaid dues are rising and rampant corruption still exists, he said. "The only thing APDCL does is raising the power rates at regular intervals," he added. (PTI)

NIA arrests terrorist involved in attack on Army in Manipur

NEW DELHI, FEB 22 — The National Investigation Agency (NIA) has arrested a member of a banned Manipuri terrorist organisation who was allegedly a part of the team that carried out an audacious attack on an Army convoy in June 2015, in which 18 soldiers were killed and 15 other injured, an official spokesperson said here.

The details of the place of arrest were not given out by the NIA and the spokesperson only said 23-year-old Moirangthang Nimachand Meitei was an active cadre of the Kangleipak Communist Party (Noyon) group. Meitei was also in the team that was involved in the ambush near Paraolen village in Chandel district of Manipur on June 4, 2015, he said. This was the worst-ever terror attack on the army which saw 18 personnel dead and 15 seriously injured. The accused was produced before the special judge on February 20 where he was remanded in seven days of NIA custody. However, sources said that the accused had been detained by a combined team of the NIA, Gorkha Rifles and Bishnupur police in Manipur on February 3 from Ningthoukhong area.

The anti-terror probe agency, which investigated the case, had ascertained that the total number of militants who participated in the attack was 23 out of whom two were killed in the retaliatory action by the Army in Chandel district of Manipur, officials said. Army trucks were attacked with Lathod guns and grenades by suspected terrorists of NSCN (Khaplang) and other groups. The militants had formed three groups to carry out the attack and explosive-laden cans were planted alongside the road to maximise the damage, the sources said. (PTI)

Army chief's statement political, shocking: AIUDF prez

GUWAHATI, FEB 22 — Army chief General Bipin Rawat's statement on the rapid growth of the All India United Democratic Front (AIUDF) in Assam is political and shocking, party president Badruddin Ajmal said today. By making such a statement, the Army chief has indulged in politics which is against the Constitutional mandate given to him, president of All India United Democratic Front tweeted. He tweeted: "General Rawat has made a political statement, shocking! Why is it a concern for the Army chief that a political party based on democratic and secular values, rising faster than BJP?" Ajma's tweets came in response to Rawat's statement on Wednesday that AIUDF's growth has been faster than that of the BJP in the 1980s. The Army chief was referring to reports of increase in Muslim population in several Assam districts. Alternative parties like the AIUDF and the AAP have grown because of the misgovernance of big parties, he added. The MP from Dhubi also tagged the tweets to Twitter handles of Rashtrapati Bhavan and the Prime Minister's Office asking them to please take note. The AIUDF, which was formed in 2005 to champion the cause of the Muslim community, currently has three MPs in the Lok Sabha and 13 MLAs in Assam. Later, Ajmal told journalists that the Army chief was misinformed and misguided. Ajmal also said he has full faith in Rawat and that protecting the country is his job. Addressing a seminar in New Delhi on Wednesday, the Army chief had also said that a planned influx of people from Bangladesh into the Northeast is taking place as part of proxy warfare by Pakistan with support from China with an aim to keep the area disturbed. Meanwhile, senior Congress leader and Assam's former chief minister Tarun Gogoi said if the Army chief's statement, as reported in the media, is true, what is the Centre doing? "The government should take appropriate steps in this regard as this will be dangerous not only for Assam/Northeast but for the entire country," Gogoi told reporters here. He claimed that the central government has completely failed to secure the country's borders and provide security. (PTI)

State Notes

Flesh trade racket busted
KOLKATA, FEB 22 — The West Bengal CID has busted a flesh trade racket and rescued six girls from a city hotel, a senior official of the probe agency said today. Twelve people, including three women, were arrested during a raid in the hotel on Belghoria Expressway, on the northern fringes of the city, last night, he said. Two minors and four girls in their late teens were rescued from the spot, the official said. "We nabbed 12 people, including three women. Besides, cash amounting to Rs. 28,050 was seized from the premises of the hotel along with other incriminating documents," he said, adding that a car used to ferry the girls was also impounded by the CBI sleuths. ## Boys saves uncle from crocodile attack

KENDRAPARA, FEB 22 — A 12-year-old boy from a remote village in Odisha's Kendrapara district has shown exemplary courage and presence of mind to save his uncle from a crocodile, a forest official said here today. The survivor, Binod Mallick, a 26-year-old fisherman from Kandira village of the district, suffered multiple injuries on his hand and thigh in the attack and is undergoing treatment at a government-run hospital in Rajnagar, he said.

Recalling the harrowing experience, Mallick said the crocodile attacked him when he entered a creek with his nephew Shiku, on Tuesday. He also thanked Shiku for his timely action. "Shiku showed his presence of mind and drove the reptile away," Mallick said. The attack was sudden and there was little time to think, the 12-year-old boy recalled. (PTI)

Assam House praises Padman: MLAs for free napkins to women

GUWAHATI, FEB 22 — Legislator today praised Bollywood movie Padman for creating awareness on menstrual hygiene and demanded distribution of free sanitary napkins to women especially in rural areas. BJP-MLA Arun Saikia requested the government to make the R Balki directed movie tax free and screen it in rural areas. "The film has beautifully presented a sensitive issue. Because of unhygienic napkins during periods, women can be affected by many diseases. Moreover, since our childhood, we have been taught that it is like the issue of untouchability," another BJP MLA Angoorata Deka said.

She said many village panchayats in other states have appointed Pad Men to aware people and demanded that Assam government distribute sanitary napkins for free or at a minimum cost in schools. Congress MLA Nandina Das said Assam had a scheme to distribute sanitary napkins free of cost since 2015, but it is not functioning at present. Assam Assam Deputy Speaker Dilip Kumar Paul asked Parliament affairs minister Chandra Mohan Patowari to talk to the health minister, who is present at the House, and see if free napkins can be distributed in schools and among women self help groups. Patowari assured the House that the government will take necessary steps to create awareness in the society for use of sanitary napkins. "In 2017-18, the Centre had sanctioned Rs. 3.9 crore for purchasing 6.12 lakh sanitary napkins. For 2018-19, we have sent a proposal of Rs. 6.20 crore to benefit 45 lakh girls," Patowari said. (PTI)

CUV-C leaves campus after 26 hrs; not to meet students' demand

KOLKATA, FEB 22 — Calcutta University (CU) vice-chancellor (v-c) Somali Chakraborty Banerjee, who left the campus last night after 26 hours following students' stir for permission to appear for examination despite inadequate attendance, today said the demand could not be met. "I left the campus at around 9.30 pm last night as I was feeling unwell and the students did not stop me. I will go to my office again this afternoon. I hope the agitating students will understand a rule framed in 1999 and enforced in all these years cannot be changed. Class attendance is important for any student," she told PTI. Banerjee had not left the campus from 8 pm on Tuesday. Meanwhile, 30 of the 78 students who did not have adequate attendance continued the sit-in stir which entered the third day. The sit-in started from 8 pm on February 20. The VC had earlier said "While we allow students having at least 55 per cent attendance with a fine, 78 students of the Bengali department do not even have the 55 per cent attendance. We cannot allow them." The first and third semester post graduate examinations will start from February 27 for 800 candidates. Of them, 78 did not have required attendance percentage. One of the 30 agitating students said they would also launch relay hunger strike if the authorities did not consider their demand. (PTI)

ER ticket checking drive

KOLKATA, FEB 22 — As a result of the massive ticket checking drive conducted by Eastern Railway all over its jurisdiction from February 2 to February 15 a total number of 94,727 persons were detected travelling without or with improper ticket and carrying unbooked luggage and an amount of Rs. 1,87,26,742/- was realised from those offenders as fare & fine. The Eastern Railway will continue such vigorous drives against ticketless travelling and carrying of unbooked luggage. Passengers are requested to travel in trains with proper ticket or authority and travel with dignity. (EOIC)
