Floods, landslides disrupt communication in different parts of Arunachal

ITANAGAR, AUG 11 /--/ Surface communication in several parts of Arunachal Pradesh has been disrupted in the second wave of flood and landslides triggered by heavy rains since the last couple of days. Surface communication between Banderdewa and Itanagar has been affected after a portion of the NH-415 near Karsingsa eroded today. However, the administration has diverted the traffic from Banderdewa to Nirjuli via Harmuti-Doimukh road, an official report said. Incessant rainals otriggered landslides in several parts of the state. Anjaw district remained cut off from rest of the state after several stretches on Tezu-Hawai road was hit by landslides in the last two days severely hampering connectivity of the border district, the report said. The bailey bridge over Eze river collapsed yesterday evening disconnecting the Hunli-Desali block in Dibang Valley district from the rest of the country, it report said. Namsai district is the worst hit district as all low lying areas in it have been submerged by flood waters of Noa Dihing and Lohit rivers along with their tributaries, which are all in high spate. Namsai deputy commissioner R K Sharma said that around 300 families were affected in the second wave of flood while six villages under Lekang circle namely Rongali Beel, Raja Beel, Dirak Miri, Lekang Gohain, Nongtaw Khampti and Mokrun were badly affected. Around 2000 hectares of agriculture land are being inundated by flood water, the DC said adding reports of massive soil erosion along with losses of private properties have been received from various pockets of the district.

Arunachal BJP breaks relation with PPA

ITANAGAR, AUG 11 /--/ The Arunachal Pradesh BJP unit has severed relations with its North East Democratic Alliance (NEDA) partner, the Peoples Party of Arunachal (PPA). The announcement to this effect was made by state BJP president Tapir Gao during the state executive meeting of the party here on Thursday.

NEDA Convener Himanta Biswa Sarma passed on the decision of the BJP Central leaders to break alliance with PPA to Gao, who made the announcement on Thursday, a party release informed here today.

"The BJP will treat PPA at par with the Congress as an opponent political party," the release added. The BJP has 47 MLAs in the Arunachal Pradesh assembly with effective strength of 59 with two independents supporting the party.

The PPA has nine MLAs and the Congress has one legislator.

The NEDA was formed on May 24, 2016 by BJP along with regional political parties like Naga People's Front, Sikkim Democratic Front, People's Party of Arunachal, Asom Gana Parishad and Bodoland People's Front in North-East India.

The NEDA was formed to protect the interest of the people of the region and also for uniting non-Congress parties in the North-east.

State to construct bridges for better connectivity in the Sundarbans

KOLKATA, AUG 11 /--/ To improve communication with different islands in the Sundarbans, the West Bengal government has taken up a major programme to construct a number of bridges connecting important islands. Replying to a question at the West Bengal Assembly, state's Sundarbans affairs minister Manturam Pakhira said that such a step was necessary to improve total development in the Sundarbans and mainly for the benefit of people living in that inaccessible area. Construction of the proposed Gadkhali-Gosaba bridge has already received state government nod and the process for acquisition of land was going on now, the minister said adding that Rs 285 crore has already been sanctioned for the construction of this 2.7 km bridge. Apart from this the state government has also taken up a programme to construct five more bridges at the Sundarbans connecting different islands during the current 2017-18 financial year, which would be completed within three to four years, Pakhira said.

Meanwhile between 2011 and 2017, the construction of seven bridges by the state government had been completed at an expense of Rs 100 crore, while 18 other bridges at an expense of Rs 400 crore were under construction in the Sundarbans, he said replying to a supplementary question in the House. Stating that the Union government has not given a single paise, Pakhira said that all these expenses were borne by state government entirely.

State's budgetary allocation for the Sundarbans affairs department has also increased by 12 per cent to Rs 450 crore during the current 2017-18 financial year, he added. PTI

Abducted student found dead; Siwan erupts in protest

PATNA, AUG 11 /--/ The body of a 11-year-old boy, who was abducted two days ago for ransom, was found in an orchard in Bihar`s Siwan district today, triggering angry protests, police said. The body of Vishnu Raj Kumar, a Class 6 student of Don Bosco School, was found in a Sarsar village orchard. Mufassil police suspect he was killed a day after his kidnapping on Wednesday. Kumar`s father Raj Kumar Prasad, a resident of Naya Bazaar area in Bailhatta, received a ransom call from the abductors on Wednesday asking for Rs 30 lakh for the boy`s safe release.

A distraught Kumar, who is a trader, says prompt police action could have saved his son. "My son was kidnapped when he was on way to my shop located in Shaddanand Bazaar in Siwan town.

Odisha swine flu toll rises to 6

BHUBANESWAR, AUG 11 /--/ The swine flu toll in Odisha today rose to six with two persons succumbing to the disease in the state, official sources said. A person undergoing treatment at SCB Medical College and Hospital in Cuttack succumbed to Swine flu late on Thursday night, informed the swine flu nodal office of the hospital. The deceased hailed from Tirtol area in Jagatsinghpur, he said. A resident of Bargarh, died of swine flu during treatment at VIMSAR at Burla in Sambalpur district today.

Meanwhile, a report said at least two doctors, one at the SCB Medical College and Hospital in Cuttack and another at the Capital Hospital here, have tested positive to the H1N1 virus. On Thursday, as many as 24 samples were sent for investigation of which 13 tested positive taking the total number of H1N1 virus affected persons in Odisha to 84. Meanwhile, the authorities of the Health department are mulling to administer vaccine to medicos and medical staff deployed at the swine flu ward in hospitals after two doctors tested positive for swine flu.
