CBI carries out searches at office of Jain's OSD

NEW DELHI, DEC 30/--/ CBI today carried out searches at the office of OSD of Delhi Health Minister Satyendra Jain in connection with alleged irregularities in his appointment at Chacha Nehru Bal Chikitsalya and subsequently as an aide to the Minister.

CBI sources said the searches took place at the office of Nikunj Aggarwal, OSD to Jain and Anup Mohta, Director Chacha Nehru Bal Chikitsalya.

They said the teams have gone to the offices of Aggarwal and Mohta to get records related to appointment and other allegations including Aggarwal's nomination for a course at IIM Ahmedabad and for a trip to Bejing, China. The sources said the team also spoke to Aggarwal in his office.

Officials sources made clear that no searches have taken place in the office of Jain and the action is limited only to the office of the OSD and Director of the official as of now.

CBI had earlier registered an FIR in connection with alleged irregularities in the appointment of Aggarwal, as OSD to Jain. The agency registered the case on the basis of a complaint from Delhi government's Deputy Secretary Vigilance K S Meena. The complaint is now the part of the FIR.

The FIR is against Mohta and Aggarwal, for alleged criminal conspiracy and under provisions of the Prevention of Corruption Act.

BJP leader Vijender Gupta had alleged that Aggarwal is the son-in-law of Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's sister-in-law. In its complaint, the vigilance department has claimed Aggarwal was appointed as Senior Resident (Ortho) in Chacha Nehru Bal Chikitsalya on ad hoc basis on August 10, 2015 even though there was no proposal to engage an SR and no such post was available. "Also no advertisement was issued by the hospital for the selection of Dr Nikunj Aggarwal as SR. No walk-in interview was conducted for the purpose," it alleged.

Aggarwal had made a handwritten application on a "plain paper" for appointment in the hospital on August 6, 2015 and within four days his appointment was approved without following any procedure, the complaint alleged. "Within few days of appointment of Aggarwal, his services were requisitioned for appointment as OSD to Minister of Health, GNCTD. As per the Residency Scheme, the resident doctors are engaged for working in hospitals, and not for other duties," it alleged. A senior government official said that it is the prerogative of the minister to appoint his OSD and that there was no irregularity adopted by the government while appointing Nikunj Aggarwal.

"Since October, he has not been holding any official post in the Delhi government as Health Minister Satyendar Jain had discontinued his service. Aggarwal had been appointed on contractual basis," the official said. (PTI)

Sasikala to formally take over as AIADMK chief today

CHENNAI, DEC 30/--/ VK Sasikala, who was appointed to the top post in the AIADMK yesterday, will formally take charge as its general secretary here tomorrow, the party said today.

The AIADMK headquarters at Royapettah here is being spruced up for the occasion with a dais being set up near the MGR statue to facilitate Sasikala to pay tributes to the party founder before taking charge. She is expected to formally assume office as the party chief by 11 am tomorrow, AIADMK spokesperson CR Saraswathy told PTI.

In keeping with the Dravidian political ethos of paying tributes at memorials of leaders before key events, Sasikala placed a wreath and paid floral tributes to Jayalalithaa at her burial site in the MGR Memorial at Marina beach this evening. She also laid wreaths and paid floral tributes at the memorials of MG Ramachandran and Dravidian ideologue and former Tamil Nadu chief minister CN Annadurai.

Amid chants of "compassionate mother Chinnamma" by her partymen, Sasikala showered flower petals on Jayalalithaa's burial site. With moist eyes, she placed a copy of the party resolution appointing her as the AIADMK general secretary at the burial site.

After silently praying for a while, she went around the site during which she paused and touched it twice as a mark of respect.

On her arrival at the MGR Memorial, Sasikala was received by AIADMK presidium chairman E Madusudanan, Tamil Nadu Chief Minister O Panneerselvam, Lok Sabha Deputy Speaker and senior party leader M Thambidurai and state ministers, including Dindigul C Srinivasan and Edappadi K Palanisami. They accompanied her as she paid her respects to the late leaders.

Party MPs, MLAs former ministers and legislators were also present on the occasion even as a large number of AIADMK cadre thronged the place.

Earlier, former Puducherry chief minister and chief of the All India NR Congress (AINRC) N Rangaswamy met Sasikala at her Poes Garden residence and congratulated her on being appointed as the AIADMK chief. (PTI)

Congress in Gujarat may project a CM face for 2017 polls

AHMEDABAD, DEC 30/--/Gujarat Congress president Bharatsinh Solanki has not ruled out the possibility of the party projecting a chief ministerial face in 2017 assembly polls to take on BJP, which has been in power in the state for nearly two decades. Claiming that the Congress is well equipped to take on BJP in the Prime Minister's home state, Solanki dubbed Vijay Rupani as a "rubber stamp" Chief Minister and claimed the change of guard earlier this year did not help the ruling party which has been grappling with Patel quota and dalit stirs.

The Congress has not fought elections projecting a chief ministerial candidate in the last 20 years in Gujarat.

With the exit of Modi from Gujarat political scene leaving a leadership vacuum in BJP, Congress is hoping to make a mark in the 2017 elections. "Though it (the leadership question) will be decided by the high command, after Uttar Pradesh and Punjab, we cannot rule it out. Let's wait and see," Solanki told PTI in an interview.

Congress has named former Delhi CM Sheila Dixit as its chief ministerial candidate for Uttar Pradesh.

In a direct attack on Chief Minister Rupani, who replaced Anandiben Patel, Solanki said he is a "rubber stamp of BJP president Amit Shah." "By changing chief minister,the BJP has lost on both fronts. Replacing a Patel and a woman Chief Minister by Rupani has not impacted the administration in a positive way. Things have gone from bad to worse," he said, when asked if the change of guard will prove disadvantageous to Congress.

The Congress, after remaining in opposition for last 20 years, is hoping for a revival, as the BJP is facing tough challenges in the form of Patel quota agitation and Dalit protests after the Una flogging incident. "Gujarat's political scenario has changed due to two agitations - Patel quota movement and Dalit agitation. Come what may, both the communities have decided to defeat BJP in the 2017 elections," Solanki claimed. Solanki is not worried about the Prime Minister's charisma and sounded confident that party will take on BJP in Modi's home state mustering all its strength as he claimed that the days factional fighting in Congress were over.

Modi, who was chief minister of Gujarat for four terms, had defeated Congress repeatedly in the state. "Modi's charisma has been diminishing after he became Prime Minister of the country. He has not controlled price rise. His flip-flop on Pakistan policy, his alliance with Mehbooba Mufti (in Jammu and Kashmir) and his demonetisation decision has eroded his image among the common people," Solanki claimed. "The difference between vote percentage received by the BJP and Congress in Gujarat has not been over 10 per cent in past elections. We need to bridge that difference and for that we have started our preparations long back," he said. "Another thing is, BJP, being in power for 20 years, has become arrogant, selfish and corrupt and has forgotten to behave in a courteous manner with citizens, which is going to hurt them badly," he claimed. Speaking about the Congress in the state, Solanki claimed the party is now free of groupism, which had been its bane in the past. "There is no groupism in the state Congress as our central leadership and our grass root workers are this time keen to put up a joint fight, which will not allow middle level leaders to indulge factious activities," he said. "We are strong in rural areas and we have launched several campaigns to win over youths and middle-class in urban areas. We have become a middle-class party now," he said, to a question on what is Congress doing to win over urban Gujarat. "We have started the process of selection of candidates and more than 2,000 party workers have applied for tickets to 182 Assembly seats for 2017 polls. We have started the preparations in a big way this time," Solanki said, adding that they will start a string of programmes and yatras next year to win over the people.

DMK seeks probe by sitting HC judge over Jaya's death

CHENNAI, DEC 30/--/ A day after a Madras High Court judge expressed doubts over the circumstances leading to the demise of former Tamil Nadu Chief Minister J Jayalalithaa, DMK today sought a comprehensive probe by a sitting HC judge into the death. "A comprehensive probe must be done by a sitting judge of the High Court and people should be told the truth," DMK Treasurer M K Stalin said.

Against the backdrop of the court raising questions, he said it was imperative for the government to come out comprehensively on the medical treatment provided to the former AIADMK chief.

In a statement here, he said complete medical bulletins, video footage and photos of her getting treatment at the hospital should be released.

Citing Justice Vaidyanathan's observation yesterday that he may consider ordering exhumation of the body of the departed leader, he said "it is imperative for the government to release comprehensive information". Stalin, who had earlier sought a white paper on the treatment given to Jayalalithaa, said there was no statement from the government ever since she was admitted to the hospital on September 22. He said the Centre and Tamil Nadu Chief Minister O Panneerselvam had a duty to answer questions related to the treatment provided for the late leader. Doctors from Delhi's AIIMS too had treated her, he said.
