Babri case: Court tasks CBI witness to appear today

LUCKNOW, MAY 31 /- / A special court hearing the 1992 Babri mosque demolition case, today issued summons to CBI witnesses, asking him to appear before it tomorrow. Special Judge S K Yadav issued the summons to the 19th witness of the CBI after the agency's counsel furnished a list of the 196 witnesses examined by the court in Lucknow and 57 in Raebareilly to the lawyers of BJP leader L K Advani and the other accused in the case.

The defence counsel also sought copies of statements of these witnesses which were provided to them. Subsequently, the court issued summons to the 19th witness of the CBI. The judge had yesterday framed charges against BJP veterans Advani, M M Joshi, Union minister Uma Bharti and nine others for criminal conspiracy in the case of demolition of the 16th-century structure in Ayodhya on December 6, 1992. The Supreme Court had ordered restoration of the conspiracy charge against them on April 19.

The charges were framed against former deputy prime minister Advani (89), former Union minister Joshi (83), Bharti (58), BJP MP Vinay Katiyar (89), VHP's Vishnu Hari Dalmiya (89) and one-time Hindutva firebrand Sachvi Rihambara (53).

All the six were granted bail by judge

Yadav on a personal bond of Rs5,00,000 each after rejecting the CBI's opposition to the bail. The charge of conspiracy is in addition to the existing charges against them for promoting enmity between different groups on grounds of religion for which they are already facing trial.

The apex court had while restoring the charge of criminal conspiracy, directed clubbing of two cases relating to the demolition. The court had also ordered that the trial be concluded in two years. Besides the six, conspiracy charges were also framed against Ramvilas Vedani, Baikunth Lal Sharma, Champat Rai Bansal, Mahant Nritya Gopaldas, Dharam Das and Satish Pradhan - all of whom were allegedly present when the structure in Ayodhya was pulled down. The accused are also facing charges of having made assertions "prejudicial to national integration and injuring or defiling a place of worship".

The other charges against them include including in "deliberate and malicious" acts intended to outrage religious feelings, uttering statements leading to public mischief, rioting and unlawful assembly.

The maximum punishment upon conviction after restoration of the conspiracy charge could be up to five years in jail or a fine or both, according to a lawyer (PTI)

BJP using cow, Ram temple issues for votebank politics: Shukla

CHANDIGARH, MAY 31 /- / The Congress today hit out at the BJP-led NDA government at the Centre, on its third anniversary, accusing it of having failed on all fronts and using cow and Ram temple issues for votebank politics. Asserting that the Congress has never supported cow slaughter, the party's spokesperson Rajiv Shukla said three Youth Congress activists have been suspended for butchering a calf in Kamur district of Kerala. "Congress has always been against cow slaughter... but the BJP has been politicising this issue and connecting it with votebank politics," he said at a press conference here. On Ram temple issue, Shukla said, "For the BJP, Ram temple issue crops up just when elections are near. When it is over, they forget Lord Ram. For 25 years now, they are misleading people on this issue." "They (BJP) use it (Ram temple issue) for votebank politics. As far as the Congress is concerned, whatever court decides will be acceptable to us," he said. Shukla mentioned that the BJP government is in power at the Centre they took advantage of it and also indulged in communal polarisation. "However, despite the result, no one can say Akhlesh Yadav's government did not undertake open work. The SP got 80,000 to 90,000 votes but its constituency like in 2012, but the BJP got a couple of thousand votes more," Shukla said. He claimed that if the votes of the SP, the BSP and the Congress per constituency are combined then it would be 1.5 times more than what the BJP got and if there is a grand alliance ahead of the 2019 Lok Sabha polls, it would reflect in the results.

Accusing the Narendra Modi government of implementing and claiming credit for various flagship schemes of the UPA government during the last 10 years, he said in the run up to the 2014 Lok Sabha polls, Shukla said, "They are coming across like a duplicate government copying our things." He claimed that the BJP government is doing flip-flop on foreign policy and said, "Inconsistency, unpredictability and turns define the Pakistan policy. There is inaction, lack of political will and direction." Although China blocks India's membership in Nuclear Suppliers Group or the UN Security Council, our imports from neighbouring country have increased, Shukla said. Taking a dig at the Centre's Ganga rejuvenation project, the Congress leader said so much money has been spent but it has not yielded results.

Symbol case: Court to pass order on Dhinakaran's bail today

NEW DELHI, MAY 31 /- / Delhi court would tomorrow pronounce its order on the bail plea of AIADMK (Amma) faction leader Vengalil Dhinakaran, who was arrested for alleged involvement in the Election Commission bribery case. Special Judge Poonam Chaudhry, who was scheduled to pass the order on the bail pleas of Dhinakaran and his close aide Mallikarjuna today, said the order could not be completed and it would be pronounced tomorrow as stenographers were on leave. Dhinakaran, who was arrested by Delhi Police Crime Branch on April 25, sought bail on the ground that his legal servant was made an accused in the case though he was booked on graft charges. His bail was opposed by the police which had said he had conspired with others to undermine the sanctity of the electoral process through corrupt means and practices. Mallikarjuna, who was also arrested on April 25, sought bail on the ground that his lawyer was made an accused in the case though the investigation even though no summons were issued to him by the police. His bail application was also opposed by the police. Accused Dhinakaran, Mallikarjuna, alleged middleman Suresh Chandrashekar and alleged hawala operator Nathu Singh are in judicial custody till June 12. Co-accused Lalit Kumar, who was also alleged to be a hawala operator, is in judicial custody till June 5. The court had on May 22 dismissed the bail plea of Chandrashekar saying it was not appropriate to grant him bail at this stage as it was a serious crime and he could tamper with the evidence.
