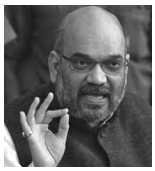
No question of quitting as BJP president, says Amit Shah



LUCKNOW, JULY 31 /--/ BJP president Amit Shah today said there was no question of him leaving the party post and he was working "happily" and "wholeheartedly". Ending speculation that he would resign as party president if elected to the Rajya Sabha, Shah also denied that the BJP had broken any party in Bihar. "It was Nitish Kumar who resigned from the post of the chief minister as he did not want to continue with the corrupt.

Are we supposed to force them to continue?" Shah, who arrived here Saturday on a three-day visit, answered a range of questions, including on getting elected to the Rajya Sabha and subsequently resigning as party president. "There is no question of doing so.

I have the responsibility of being the party president. I am happy, and I am working wholeheartedly. You people (media) please do not push," Shah told reporters. The BJP president exuded confidence that the party would come back to power with more strength in the next Lok Sabha election in 2019. "BJP will romp home victorious with bigger strength than 2014 on the basis of its development and good governance of the Modi government, as well as the 13 state governments of the party in the country," he said. Calling Prime Minister Narendra Modi the "undisputed most popular PM" of the country, Shah said the government had "succeeded in ending the politics of family, caste and appeasement in the country".

The previous Manmohan Singh-led government suffered from "policy paralysis", he said. "Every minister assumed himself to be the PM, and no one considered him as the PM." He reiterated that unlike previous governments, which had just a couple of things to show as their achievements during their tenures, the Modi government had undertaken 50 important works in its three years. Claiming that there were scams worth Rs 12 lakh crore in the 10 years of the UPA government, Shah said there was not a single allegation of corruption during the three years of the Modi government.

Even the opposition could not cast any aspersions on the issue. Making a special mention of the surgical strikes across the LoC last year, Shah said they projected the country as one with firm resolve in the global area, which can take any decision for its security. Referring to Congress' Gujarat MLAs being shifted to Bengaluru to allegedly ward off "poaching", he said, "It can be understood if they speak about Gujarat. But why are they (Congress MLAs) being kept in locked rooms in Bengaluru…you must understand that." Asked about his party not being as strong in the south as it was in the north, he said this was earlier said about the BJP's presence in the north as well.

To a question on the NIA blaming cross-border trade for terrorism, Shah said that the BJP had no relevance as it concerned the security agencies, the Army and the Jammu and Kashmir government.(PTI)

Fabrication of evidence serious offence: SC in post-Godhra riots case

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /--/ A high-voltage hearing was today witnessed in a case of alleged fabrication of evidence in a 2002 post-Godhra riot case in the Supreme Court which asked a volley of questions to social activist Teesta Setalvad for opposing a probe against her former aide Rais Khan Pathan. The apex court was hearing the appeal filed by Setalvad and her NGO, Citizen for Justice and Peace (CJP), against a decision of the Gujarat High Court upholding a magisterial court order for a probe against Pathan. "It is a serious offence whosoever has done it. Either they (Setalvad and her NGO, Citizen for Justice and Peace) are wrong or Pathan is wrong.

We will look into it," a bench of justices Arun Mishra and Amitava Roy said. Senior advocate Kapil Sibal, appearing for Setalvad, questioned the procedure adopted for continuing with the probe against Pathan when his petition to become a court witness was dismissed. However, Additional Solicitor General Tushar Mehta and senior advocate Mahesh Jethmalani, appearing for the Gujarat government and Pathan respectively, said Setalvad and her NGO have no locus standi in the criminal case as they were not parties to the matter either in the high court or the trial court.

After hearing the matter partly, the bench posted it for hearing to August 21, saying it would examine the matter on the question of law. It refused to grant four weeks to Setalvad to keep ready the compilations, brief notes and synopsis of the matter.

Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan talking to mediapersons after a peace meeting with senior leaders of CPI(M), BJP and RSS in the background of the tense political situation in the state following the alleged murder of a RSS activist by CPI(M) workers, in Thiruvananthapuram.

CPI(M)-RSS meeting: Kerala CM asks media to leave

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, JULY 31 /--/ Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan today asked media persons to leave the venue of a peace meeting convened by him with top BJP and RSS leaders. The meet was held in the backdrop of the violence following the slaying of an RSS worker near here on Saturday.

As Vijayan reached the meeting venue, apparently on seeing a large contingent of electronic media persons occupying the room, he lost his composure and asked them to leave. Just as the media persons were coming out, the chief minister asked the staff at the hotel, where the meeting was being held, why members of the fourth estate were allowed inside. 'Kadakku Purathu (just leave)', the chief minister said tersely to the media. Only after they had left the venue, did he enter the meeting hall. After the meeting, Vijayan, while giving details about it, declined to reply to a question as to why the media was not allowed inside the meeting hall.

Later in a clarification, the CM's office said the media was not invited for the meeting, not even for the photo-op ahead of the meeting, it said. "When the chief minister and other leaders came to the venue, the entire media was inside the hall. That is why, the CM asked them to leave the hall," the statement said.

It was not possible to hold such a discussion in the presence of the media, it added. CPI(M) state secretary Kodiyeri Balakrishnan said probably the chief minister got angry as the media took visuals without permission.(PTI)

Majority of Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus : BJP MP

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /--/ Majority of Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus, a BJP member claimed in the Lok Sabha today while asking both the communities to respect each other's sentiment.

Participating in a debate on lynchings, Hukumdev Narayan Yadav slammed the opposition for targeting the central government over incidents of lynchings, saying Prime Minister Narendra Modi has repeatedly come out strongly against such acts. He raised the issue of killing of RSS workers in Kerala, which is ruled by the Left Front government. Yadav asserted that the responsibility of containing mob violence is that of the state governments. He said "certain demons" have put on "holy garb" to defame the government, likening it to an episode in the Ramayana. "Some people are indulging in terror (atankvadi) activities to defame the government," the BJP member said and slammed the Congress for questioning the intention of the Modi government. Yadav, the MP from Madhubani in Bihar, said a fight between two ideologies has been going on for several decades and asserted those who follow the path of "economic development and nationalism" will come out victorious. During his speech, he extensively quoted Deen Dayal Upadhyaya and said the BJP ideologue had stated that "Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus. He said every Muslim must respect Hindu sentiment and at the same time, Hindus must respect the Muslims. The MP was also severely critical of the policies of Congress and said "I will prefer to die than bowing before the Congress…Some politicians sit with the Congress and have biryani and then indulge in artificial fight outside."

Yadav said he will prefer to die than abadonning the ideology he is fighting for. Talking about nationalism, Yadav said freedom fighters Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan had sung the poem 'Vande Mataram' but there is an environment now in which singing it is considered a crime. He also cited a recent case in which a political leader had sought support from the Naxals. "There cannot be bigger lynching than this," the BJP said.

Yadav also alleged that Deen Dayal Upadhyaya and Ram Manohar Lohia were killed in late 1960s as both were planning to join hands. The BJP MP drew the attention of the House towards the 1984 anti-Sikh riots and raised the issue of killing of RSS workers in Kerala.(PTI)

Oppn attacks govt for encouraging cow vigilantes

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /--/ The Opposition today accused the BJP-led government of encouraging organisations behind the violence by cow vigilantes, with Congress claiming that lynching of people in the name of religion and cow protection began only after it assumed power. Initiating a discussion on the issue of mob lynching in the Lok Sabha, Leader of the Congress Mallikarjun Kharge said 'Hindustan' should not be allowed to become "lynchistan". This government is against minorities, Dalits and women, he alleged, saying these sections had borne the maximum assault. The Prime Minister says he was against it, but what action has he taken, Kharge asked and said "He says something and does something else." He asked the government to give details of the action taken against the accused in these cases, claiming that they had become brazen because of lack of action. Citing a number of incidents this year to say that the lynchings had mostly happened in the BJP-ruled states, he said there was an atmosphere of fear and terror across the country, which has brought a bad name to India in the world. He named Hindutva organisations like the VHP and Bajrang Dal, saying they were involved in such violence. "It is also being done so that your ideology and philosophy could be established in the country," the Congress leader said, pointing to the BJP's "links" with these outfits. BJP-ruled Jharkhand and Madhya Pradesh had become centres of mob lynching, he said, adding that such incidents would become a major threat to the nation's integrity. Referring to the murder of a BJP worker in Kerala, he said the Governor there summoned the DGP on the issue, but nothing of that sort was done in other states where the people were lynched. BJP members objected to Kharge citing incidents, saying many of the cases he was referring to were sub-judice. Parliamentary Affairs Minister Ananth Kumar also objected to his reference to former President Pranab Mukherjee's speech, saying it was against rules. Kumar said action had been taken against the hooliganism which had taken place in the name of cow protection. Countering Kharge's onslaught against the government, BJP leader Hukumdev Narayan Yadav slammed the opposition for targeting the NDA government over incidents of lynchings, saying Prime Minister Narendra Modi has repeatedly come out strongly against such acts. "Some people are indulging in terror activities to defame the government. They are questioning our intentions. It is wrong," he said. Yadav equated the lynching incidents with the killing of RSS workers in Kerala and that of a police officer in Kashmir and asked whether these were not equivalent to mob violence. He said a fight between two ideologies has been going on for several decades and asserted that those who follow the path of "economic development and nationalism" will out victorious come.(PTI)

SC raps UP govt over 'irregularities' in funds given to Etawah college

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /--/ The Supreme Court today rapped the Uttar Pradesh government for alleged irregularities in the allocation of funds to educational institutions, including to a Etawah-based college, when Mulayam Singh Yadav was the chief minister in 2002-03. A bench headed by Chief Justice J S Khehar questioned the state government over granting Rs 100 crore to educational bodies, allegedly without following procedures. "How could the money be allocated to a society without any guarantee of returns and scrutiny? …The state government should clarify its stand," the bench, also comprising Justice D Y Chandrachud, said.

The top court asked UP's Yogi Adityanath government to file a response on the issue within two weeks. The Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) of India had earlier detected irregularities in the allocation of funds to educational institutions in the state by the then government in 2002-03. The auditor in a report had said an amount of Rs 35 crore was irregularly given to the Chaudhury Charan Singh College in Etawah. The court was told by CAG that proper procedures were not followed in releasing contingency funds to a college by the UP Rajkiya Nirman Nigam Limited, a subsidiary of the PWD department, and "gross irregularities" were found in the report. The apex court had earlier asked the Centre to inform it if CAG had objected to the release of funds in connection with the birth centenary celebrations of former Prime Minister Charan Singh to the college run by a society which had senior Samajwadi Party (SP) leaders on its Board.

It had directed SP supremo Yadav to file his response and asked the Centre to apprise it about objections, if any, raised in the past by CAG. The bench is hearing an appeal filed by one Mahendra Nath Rai against the dismissal of his plea in 2004 by the Lucknow bench of the Allahabad High Court, challenging the grant to the college for the centenary celebration in 2002-03. The court had also asked Siksha Prasar Samiti, the society which runs the college, to inform it within four weeks about its composition and income tax returns. It had asked the society, which had Shivpal Singh Yadav and Ramgopal Yadav on its board, not to spend from its corpus except for meeting some urgent day-to-day needs . The court had on March 2 expressed displeasure over the non-filing of responses by some people, including the ex-chief minister, in t he report. The plea alleged that the centenary celebrations had taken the form of construction of buildings for the college being run by the society and the expenditure incurred by the state.(PTI)
