

No question of quitting as BJP president, says Amit Shah

LUCKNOW, JULY 31 /- /BJP president Amit Shah today said there was no question of him leaving the party post and he was working "happily" and "wholeheartedly".

was Nitish Kumar who resigned from the post of the chief minister as he did not want to continue with the corrupt. "I am supposed to force them to continue", Shah, who arrived here Saturday on a three-day visit, answered a range of questions, including on getting elected to the Rajya Sabha and subsequently resigning as party president. "There is no question of doing so. I have the responsibility of being the party president. I am happy, and I am working wholeheartedly. You people (media) please do not paralyse", he said. The BJP president denied that the BJP had broken any party in Bihar. "It power with more strength in the next Lok Sabha election in 2019. "BJP will romp home victorious with bigger strength than 2014 on the basis of its development and good governance of the Modi government, as well as the 13 state governments of the party in the country", he said. Calling Prime Minister Narendra Modi the "undisputed most popular PM of the country", Shah said the government had succeeded in ending the politics of fear, caste and appeasement in the country. "The previous Manmohan Singh-led government suffered from 'policy paralysis', he said. "Every minister assumed himself to be the PM, and no one considered him as the

PM." He reiterated that unlike previous governments, which had just a couple of things to show as their achievements during their tenures, the Modi government had undertaken 50 important works in its three years. Claiming that there were scams worth Rs 12 lakh crore in the 10 years of the UPA government, Shah said there was not a single allegation of corruption during the three years of the Modi government. "Even the opposition could not cast any aspersions on this issue. Making a special mention of the surgical strikes against the LoC last year, Shah said they projected the country as one with firm resolve in the global area, which can take

Fabrication of evidence serious offence: SC in post-Godhra riots case

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /- / A high-voltage hearing was today witnessed in a case of alleged fabrication of evidence in a 2002 post-Godhra riot case in the Supreme Court which asked a volley of questions to social activist Teesta Setalvad for opposing a probe against her former aide Rais Khan Pathan. The apex court was hearing the appeal filed by Setalvad and her NGO, Citizen for Justice and Peace (CJP), against a decision of the Gujarat High Court upholding a magisterial court order for a probe against Pathan. "It is a serious offence whosever has done it. Either they (Setalvad and her NGO, Citizen for Justice and Peace) are wrong or Pathan is wrong."

CPI(M)-RSS meeting: Kerala CM asks media to leave

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, JULY 31 /- / Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan today asked media persons to leave the venue of a peace meeting convened by him with top BJP and RSS leaders. The meet was held in the backdrop of the violence following the slaying of an RSS worker near here on Saturday. As Vijayan reached the meeting venue, apparently on seeing a large contingent of electronic media persons occupying the room, he his composure and asked them to leave. Just as the media persons were coming out, the chief minister asked the staff at the hotel, where the meeting was being held, why members of the fourth estate were allowed inside. "Katakaku Purathu (Just leave)", the chief minister said tersely to the media. Only after the

Oppn attacks govt for encouraging cow vigilantes

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /- / The Opposition today accused the BJP-led government of encouraging organisations behind the violence by cow vigilantes, with Congress claiming that lynching of people in the name of religion and cow protection began only after it assumed power. Initiating a discussion on the issue of mob lynching in the Lok Sabha, Leader of the Congress Mallikarjun Kharge said "Hindutva should not be allowed to become a 'lynchistan'. This government is against minorities, Dalits and women, he alleged, saying these sections had borne the maximum assault. The Prime Minister says he was against it, but what action has he taken, Kharge asked and said "He says something and does something else." He asked the government to give details of the action taken against the accused in these cases, claiming that they had become brazen because of lack of action. Citing a number of incidents this year to say that the lynchings had mostly happened in the BJP-ruled states, he said there was an atmosphere of fear and terror across the country, which has brought a bad name to India in the world. He named Hindutva organisations like the VHP and Bajrang Dal, saying they were involved in such violence. "It is also being done so that your ideology and philosophy could be established in the country," the Congress leader said, pointing to the BJP's "links" with these outfits. BJP ruled Jharkhand and Madhya Pradesh had

Majority of Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus: BJP MP

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /- / Majority of Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus, a BJP member claimed in the Lok Sabha today while attacking the opposition for not respecting the communities to respect each other's sentiment. Participating in a debate on lynchings, Hukumdev Narayan Yadav slammed the opposition for targeting the central government over incidents of lynchings, saying Prime Minister Narendra Modi has repeatedly come out strongly against such acts. He raised the issue of killing of RSS workers in Kerala, which is ruled by the Left Front government. Yadav asserted that the responsibility of containing mob violence is that of the state governments. He said "certain demons" have put on "the loincloth" to defame the government, likening it to an episode in the Ramayana. "Some people are indulging in terror (atankvadi) activities to defame the government," the BJP member said and slammed the Congress for questioning the intention of the Modi government. Yadav, the MP from Manipal in Bihar, said a fight between two ideologies has been going on for several decades and asserted those who follow the path of "economic development and nationalism" will come out victorious. During his speech, he extensively quoted Deen Dayal Upadhyaya and said the BJP ideology had stated that "Muslims in India are descendants of Hindus. He said every Muslim must respect Hindu sentiment and at the same time, Hindus must respect the Muslims. The MP was also severely critical of the policies of Congress and said "I will prefer to die than bowing before the Congress...Some politicians sit with the Congress and have biryani and then indulge in artificial fight outside."

Yadav said he will prefer to die than abandoning the ideology he is fighting for. Talking about nationalism, Yadav said freedom fighters Maulana Abul Kalam Azad and Khan Abdul Gaffar Khan had sung the poem 'Vande Mataram' but there is an environment now, which singing it is considered a crime. He also cited a recent case in which a political leader had sought support from the Nawal Kishore in Bihar, said a fight between two ideologies has been going on for several decades and asserted those who follow the path of "economic development and nationalism" will come out victorious. During his speech, he extensively left the venue, did he enter the meeting hall. After the meeting, Vijayan, while giving details about it, declined to reply to questions as to why the media was not allowed inside the meeting hall. "Later in a clarification, the CM's office said the media was not invited for the meeting, not even for the photo-op ahead of the meeting, it said. "When the chief minister and other leaders came to the venue, the entire media was inside the hall. That is why, the CM asked them to leave the hall," the statement said. It was not possible to hold such a discussion in the presence of the media, it added. CPI(M) state secretary Kodiyeri Balakrishnan said probably the chief minister got angry as the media took visuals without permission.(PTI)

SC scraps UP govt over 'irregularities' in funds given to Etawah college

NEW DELHI, JULY 31 /- / The Supreme Court today scrapped the Uttar Pradesh government for alleged irregularities in the allocation of funds to educational institutions, including to a Etawah-based college, with the birth centenary of Mahatma Gandhi. Yadav was the chief minister in 2002-03. A bench headed by Chief Justice J S Khehar questioned the state government over granting Rs 100 crore to educational bodies, allegedly without following procedures. "How could the money be allocated to a society without any guarantee of returns and scrutiny?.. The state government should clarify its stand," the bench, also comprising Justice D Y Chandrachud, said.

The top court asked UP's Yogi Adityanath government to file a response on the issue within two weeks. The Comptroller and Auditor General (CAG) of India had earlier detected irregularities in the allocation of funds to educational institutions in the state by the then government in 2002-03. The auditor in a report had said an amount of Rs 35 crore was irregularly given to the Chaudhury Charan Singh College in Etawah. The court was told by CAG that proper procedures were not followed in releasing contingency funds to a college by the UP Rajkiya Nirman Nigam Limited, a subsidiary of the PWD department, and "gross irregularities" were found in the report. The apex court had earlier asked the Centre to inform if it CAG had objected to the release of funds in connection with the birth centenary celebrations of former Prime Minister Charan Singh to the college run by a society which had senior Samajwadi Party (SP) leaders on its Board.

It had directed SP supremo Yadava to file his response and asked the Centre to apprise it about objections, if any, raised in the past by CAG. The bench is hearing an appeal filed by one Mahendra Nath Rai against the dismissal of his plea in 2004 by the Lucknow bench of the Allahabad High Court, challenging the grant to the college for the centenary celebration in 2002-03. The court had also asked Sushma Prasad Samiti, the society which runs the college, to inform it within four weeks about its composition and income tax returns. It had asked the society, which had Shival Singh Yadav and Ramgopal Yadav on its board, not to spend from its corpus except for meetings on urgent day-to-day needs. The court had on March 2 expressed displeasure over the non-filing of responses by some people, including the chief minister, in its report. The plea alleged that the centenary celebrations had taken the form of construction of buildings for the college being run by the society and the expenditure incurred by the state.(PTI)
