

Sharad Yadav is free to choose his path: Nitish

NEW DELHI, AUG 11 /- / Bihar chief minister Nitish Kumar today said that senior party leader Sharad Yadav who has expressed his desire to be part of the proceedings against the alliance between his party and the BJP in the state, is free to choose his path.

The party has taken a decision with everyone's consensus. He (Sharad Yadav) is free to make his own decisions, Nitish told newsmen outside Parliament. His remarks came a day after former party president Sharad Yadav declared he was still with the Grand Alliance of the RJD and Congress. "I still remain with Mahagathbandhan (Grand Alliance) that was given a mandate by 11 crore people in Bihar in the 2015 Assembly polls to rule for five years." Yadav had told the media after landing at the Patna airport from Delhi. Nitish, the president of the Janata Dal (United) on July 26 resigned as the chief minister of the state dumping the 20-month-old Grand Alliance comprising the Congress and the Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD). He again took oath as the chief minister with the support of the BJP on July 27.

House should debate and decide on issues, not disrupt, says new RS chairman Venkaiah Naidu

NEW DELHI, AUG 11 /- / Vice-President M Venkaiah Naidu today took over as the Rajya Sabha chairman and conducted its proceedings, saying the House should debate, discuss and decide on issues but disruptions should be avoided.

Naidu said that he did not approve of legislations being passed in the din and emphasised that it can happen when there are no disruptions, in an apparent response to several opposition members urging him to continue the practice of not allowing any bill to be passed amid pandemonium.

Earlier, Union finance minister Arun Jaitley had also said that since 2014, bills were not being passed in the din and had urged that the government's legislative business should be allowed to be taken up smoothly.

Naidu said that members belonging to various parties were political rivals but not enemies. "We have to keep this in mind and work together," he said, adding that all members should work to strengthen the country in line with their views and ideologies. The Vice-President expressed gratitude that confidence has been reposed on "a humble agriculturist" for such an important duty. Known for his witty one-liners, Naidu said "after all, the culture of India is agriculture."

Recalling his origins, he said he hoped to a humble background and did not have the support of any "dynasty".

He said he had lost his parents early in life "so much so that he cannot even recall the face of his mother," he said in a voice trembling with emotion. "I am humbled by the honour", he told members and said the play of numbers was now a thing of the past for him. "Now I am an all-party man, above party politics," Naidu said. Referring to Congress leader Anand Sharma, who had expressed expectations in this regard, he said they would be met with.

RS adjourned sine die after passing 9 bills

NEW DELHI, AUG 11 /- / The Monsoon session of the Rajya Sabha came to an end today after passing nine bills and debates on a number of crucial issues like lynchings and the agrarian crisis facing the country. A highlight of the session was that the new Chairman Venkaiah Naidu took over on its last day today.

During the 19 sittings, the House sat for more than 80 hours but lost nearly 25 hours due to disruptions on various issues. The House also sat late for more than seven hours to complete legislative and other business.

Naidu, before adjourning the House sine die, gave an overview of the proceedings during the session that began on July 17. During the session, members spoke on the 75th anniversary of the Quit India movement and a resolution was adopted.

Two new members Vinay Dinu Tendulkar, Sampatiya Utkay joined the House while BSP leader Mayawati and M Venkaiah Naidu resigned.

Doklam plateau a bilateral issue between India and China: British Deputy High Commissioner

BENGALURU, AUG 11 /- / The Doklam Plateau issue is a bilateral matter between India and China and the UK is not involved in the Doklam area for the last 50 years after Indian troops stopped the Chinese People's Liberation Army from building a road in the area. However, it was very much a bilateral issue between India and China, McAllister said.

McAllister told reporters here to queries on the ongoing standoff in Doklam, India and China have been locked in a face-off in the Doklam area for the last 50 years after Indian troops stopped the Chinese People's Liberation Army from building a road in the area. However, it was very much a bilateral issue between India and China, McAllister said. Responding to a query on the impact of Brexit on Indian students in UK, the British Deputy High Commissioner in Bengaluru said the situation before and after Brexit has not changed with regards to visa regulations. The whole visa reform in UK was to discourage those who were abusing visas in the country, he said.

The UK has seen a steady increase in the success rate of student applications post-Brexit, McAllister said. Educational costs have become 17 per cent cheaper for Indian students in the UK post-Brexit because of the favourable change in the exchange rate of Indian rupee and pounds sterling, McAllister said.

Both rich and poor fought for India's freedom: Azad

NEW DELHI, AUG 11 /- / Congress leader Ghulam Nabi Azad today virtually countered Prime Minister Narendra Modi, saying the contributions of not only the poor, but even well-off persons like Motilal Nehru who gave up their riches for the freedom struggle, cannot be forgotten.

While felicitating new chairman M Venkaiah Naidu in the Rajya Sabha, Azad, without referring to Modi's remarks that the poor had risen to high constitutional posts reflected the strength of democracy, said the rich as well as others had given the country a Constitution enabling persons from a humble background to become the President, the Vice-President, the Prime Minister and Supreme Court Judges. But "it was not a question of rich or poor". The country cannot forget the contributions made by the rich who gave up their wealth for the country and spent years in jail for participating in the freedom struggle, the Leader of the Opposition said. Azad said the rise of grassroot-level persons like Sitaram Yechury and Naidu to high positions was the biggest achievement of democracy and many weren't landlords or educated families had reached the zenith of their profession. Modi in his felicitation had termed it as tribute to democracy that people from humble backgrounds rose to the highest constitutional positions. Speaking immediately after him, Azad said Nehru was a big lawyer who earned Rs 7-10 crore in today's currency terms but gave away his wealth. Mahatma Gandhi too was a big lawyer who gave away even his clothes and family for the country, he said. "We should not forget them and their contribution to those who were well-off and educated, who gave up their riches, families and children for freedom of India," he said and went to name Sardar Patel, Subhash Chandra Bose, Bal Gangadhar Tilak and Maulana Azad.
