MIAMI, MAY 30 /- Tiger Woods attributed an "unexpected reaction" to prescription medicine for his arrest on a DUI charge that landed him in a Florida jail for nearly four hours.

Woods, the 14-time major champion who had back surgery five weeks ago, was arrested on suspicion of DUI at about 3 am on Monday and taken to Palm Beach County jail. He was released on his own recognizance.

An arrest report might be available today, Jupiter Police spokeswoman Kristin Rightler said.

"I understand the severity of what I did and I take full responsibility for my actions," Woods said in a statement Monday evening.

"I want the public to know that alcohol was not involved."

What happened was an unexpected reaction to prescribed medications, I didn't realize the mix of medications had affected me so strongly."

Woods apologized to his family, friends and fans, said. "I expect more from myself, too."

"I will do everything in my power to ensure this never happens again," he said.

Woods, whose 79 victories rank No. 2 on the PGA Tour's career list, has not competed for nearly four months. He is out for the rest of the season while he recovers from fusion surgery performed April 20 in Texas.

In an update posted on his website, he said the surgery provided instant relief from pain and that he "didn't feel this good in years."

Police said Woods was arrested on Military Trail, a six-lane road, south of Inian Creek Parkway. Woods did not have any alcohol in his system where he had been or what he was doing at that hour. Jail records show that the 41-year-old was booked into jail at 7:18 am and released at 10:50 am. The jail releases a booking photo of Woods in a white shirt.

Rightler, the police spokeswoman, said she did not have details about the circumstances leading to Woods' arrest, nor did she have any information about whether the arrest involved drugs or alcohol.

His agent at Excel Sports, Mark Steberg, did not respond to a voicemail from The Associated Press seeking comment. PGA Tour spokesman Ty Woods said the tour would have no comment.

Woods said in his statement that he fully cooperated with law enforcement and thanked Jupiter Police and the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office for being professional.

Notah Begay, a roommate of Woods when they played at Stanford, was empathetic. Begay was arrested for aggravated drunken driving in 2000 when he ran into a car outside a bar in New Mexico.

Tennis: Court won't be 'intimidated' on gay marriage stance

SYDNEY, MAY 30 /- Australian tennis great Margaret Court says she feels bullied by a fierce backlash over her views on gay marriage, but has vowed not to be "intimidated".

The 24-time Grand Slam champion, now a Christian pastor, caused controversy by announcing last week she would stop flying Qantas "where possible" in protest at the airline's support of same-sex marriage.

It sparked calls, led by Martina Navratilova and supported by Riechel Hogenkamp, one of the few openly gay players in tennis, for the Australian Open to take her name off one of its flagship stadiums.

Court, 74, said she had the right to air her views.

"I think it's my bullying. I think they all said that we were bullying them but I think there's a lot of bullying going on, intimidation," she told Sky News late last night. "I think everybody has their views. I have nothing against gay people and you know we have them in our church and I help them. (But this is a Judeo-Christian nation and I believe we should protect marriage.)"

Court has long held strong views about homosexuality, which have previously been slammed by Navratilova and fellow great Billie Jean King, who are both gay.

"I'm not intimidated because I know who I am. I love family and I just stand up for righteousness and truth," Court said. On Monday, Hogenkamp joined calls for her name to be stripped from the arena at Melbourne Park, where the first Grand Slam event of the season takes place in January.
