Simultaneous elections not feasible: Puducherry CM

RAIPUR, JULY 7 -- After a 14-hour debate, the Congress rule has been dismantled 70 per cent of the country, while the Congress rule has shrunk to only six per cent of the country's territory, Singh said. "The charge sheet presented by the Congress in the no-confidence motion clearly shows it has already accepted its defeat. In the winter session it had moved a no-confidence motion which had 168 points, now the number is reduced to 15. Like the Congress party, its charge sheet has also shrunk," he quipped. Singh gave a detailed account of his government's achievements, and said it will retain power for the fourth time in a row in the coming Assembly polls. Earlier, Leader of Opposition T S Singshdeo said the state government had cheated people by not fulfilling its promises and by perpetrating scams. "The government has failed on all fronts. Farmers are facing a crisis, the youth have no jobs, women are unsafe and public representatives are being targeted," the Congress leader said. Referring to the cases against state Congress chief Bhupesh Baghel, Singshdeo said Baghel was being targeted by the government machinery with political motives. The government did not agree to the demand of probe of the alleged suicide of Rinku Khanuja, he said. Khanuja had been questioned by the CBI in a case of a sex CD which allegedly featured a Chhattisgarh minister. The government has lost people's trust as several sections of society including Shikshakarmis (teachers), nurses and families of police personnel are agitating, he said. Despite the government's tall claims of development in the last 15 years, the poor's lot has not improved, he said. The LoP also hit out at the government over the issues related to health, law and order and the agriculture sector. After the debate, the motion was put to voice vote and was defeated. Speaker Gaurishankar Agrawal then completed other business of the House and adjourned the Assembly sine die. This was the third no-trust motion faced by the Raman Singh government. The state, under BJP rule since 2013, will be going to the polls later this year.

Goa Gov suggests setting up of pre-marriage counselling centre in varsity: Guv

PANAJI, JULY 7 -- Goa Governor Mridula Sinha today asked students to take an oath that they will not break their marriage on petty issues and suggested setting up a pre-marriage counselling centre in the Goa University. "There is a need to set up a pre-marriage counselling centre for the youth in the Goa University. The youth should know how to run a family," Sinha said. "If they have any questions related to marriage, they can be answered (at the counselling centre) and this will help them lead a successful married life," she added. The Governor is also the chancellor of universities in the state. Sinha was addressing the 30th convocation of the Goa University here. President Ram Nath Kovind and chief minister Manohar Parrikar were also present on the occasion. Sinha, in her speech, asked students present for the convocation to make five promises by raising their hands.

The first of these was that students will not send their parents to old age homes. "Marriage is a necessity and that is why you will not break marriage on petty issues. You will make your marriage successful and will respect each other," the Governor said about the second promise.
