Goa CLP to discuss state leadership issue in view of Parrikar's ill-health

PANAJI, AUG 30 /- The Congress Legislature Party (CLP) in Goa will hold a meeting tomorrow to discuss the issue of state leadership in view of chief minister Manohar Parrikar's ongoing medical treatment. During the meeting, the CLP will discuss whether it should support the resignation of Manohar Parrikar's ongoing medical treatment. During the meeting, the CLP will discuss whether it should support the resignation of Manohar Parrikar's ongoing medical treatment. During the meeting, the CLP will discuss whether it should support the resignation of Manohar Parrikar's ongoing medical treatment.

CLP chief Chandrakant Kavlekar, who is also the Leader of Opposition, said: "During tomorrow's meeting, we will discuss whether to approach Governor Mrudula Sinha to seek her intervention to appoint a full-time chief minister for the state." Kavlekar said there was a "self-imposed emergency" in Goa with nobody was available to look after the affairs of the state. "Due to this, the administration has collapsed and the common man has to suffer," the Congress leader alleged. The absence of chief minister was a "serious issue" and it was the opposition's duty to ensure that the administration was not affected.
