Tree crashes over road at Shibpur

Diglipur, June 27--/ Another massive tree crashed over village road at Shibpur, Diglipur in North Andaman on Monday disrupting normal life in the region. According to reports, the accident occurred in the morning hours during strong winds. The tree of huge girth gave in to rough weather and fell collapsed on the main village road. Fire fighters armed with modern equipment like chain saws etc rushed to the spot after receiving the information. After a two-hour operation, the fire team cleared the debris after which normal traffic was restored in the region.

BJP complaint against Tamil magazine for intention to 'insult' PM

CHENNAI, JUNE 27 --/ The BJP today filed a police complaint against a Tamil magazine for allegedly portraying Prime Minister Narendra Modi in an "obnoxious manner." In the complaint lodged with Deputy Inspector General, Coimbatore Zone, Tamil Nadu unit B.J.P Treasurer S R Sekhar said the magazine's cover page portrayed Modi, Chief Minister K Palaniswami and other Ministers in an "obnoxious manner" in an apparent reference to the Presidential poll. The ruling AIADMK has offered support to BJP, NDA nominee Ram Nath Kovind. "Shri Modi is the tallest leader of the world and his image has been used for cheap publicity which would project a bad image about the PM among the people," the complaint said. He alleged there was an intention to "insult our PM" and sought registration of an FIR under different sections of IPC (PTT)
