

Pakshelling: Situation along LoC 'very bad', says deputy CM

JAMMU, JAN 30 /-/- There was uproar in the Jammu and Kashmir assembly today as members, including those from the BJP and the CPM, raised the issue of Pakistan shelling along the Line of Control, forcing deputy chief minister Dr Nirmal Singh to describe the situation as 'very bad'.
Dr Singh said that administration has been directed to provide safe shelters and other facilities to people who have migrated from LoC area in Rajouri. During the Question Hour in the Assembly, BJP MLA Ravinder Raina said there is heavy firing and shelling going on along LoC in my Noushera assembly constituency in which people are suffering and migration of the people have taken place. He said schools have been shut and houses suffered damages in the border areas and called for reply from the government to this urgent situation.
The BJP MLA demanded a ministerial team to assess the situation in Noushera sector. He was supported by CPM member M Tarigam and members of BJP. Replying on the issue, deputy chief minister said that 'situation is very bad along LoC due to Pakistan shelling. As a result of the shelling, migration has taken place.' He said that administration has been directed to provide necessary facilities, safe shelters and ensure safety for people along LoC.
Fourteen people, including seven children, have been killed and over 70 others injured in intense shelling by Pakistan along the International Border (IB) in Jammu, Kathua and Samba districts, and LoC in Poonch and Rajouri districts from January 18 to 22, leading to the displacement of thousands of border residents.
Over 300 schools along LoC and IB were closed last week as a precautionary measure in view of the firing. On Monday also, Pakistani troops violated ceasefire in the Uri sector of Jammu and Kashmir by firing towards Indian posts.

Gehlot seeps clean sweep for Cong in Rajasthan by-polls
JAIPUR, JAN 30 /-/- Former Rajasthan chief minister Ashok Gehlot has claimed that Congress will emerge as winner in by-polls conducted in Ajmer and Alwar Lok Sabha constituencies and Mandalgarh Assembly seat in the state on Monday. Congress will win by-polls conducted on all the three seats, Gehlot said talking to newsmen in Kota today. State election department has made arrangements for counting scheduled on February 1 for all the three seats. Information of all rounds of counting will be available on department's website, a spokesman said. By-polls were necessitated in these three seats due to the deaths of the sitting lawmakers.

LUCKNOW, JAN 30 /-/- In a bid to infuse discipline among legislators, Uttar Pradesh Assembly Speaker Hriday Narayan Dixit is contemplating institution of a 'Best Legislator Award' on the lines of the honour given to MPs. If the proposal goes ahead, Uttar Pradesh will become the first state to institute such an award.
Stung by frequent derailment of proceedings by agitated members, Dixit told news agency PTI that his main aim will be to ensure discipline in the House, whose Budget Session commences on February 8. "To encourage legislators to follow parliamentary etiquette and norms, we will contemplate on institution of Best Legislator Award on the lines of Best Parliamentarian Award. This

Yogi promises strict action against trouble makers in Kasganj

Giriraj feels the violence was pre-planned

LUCKNOW, JAN 30 /-/- Chief minister Yogi Adityanath today broke his silence on Kasganj violence promising action against those involved even as politics brewed over the clashes with Union minister Giriraj Singh claiming that media would have chosen a 'different' line if the killed youth was from the majority community.
Another BJP hardliner Vinay Katiyar, known for his controversial utterances, also waded in the row saying there were some 'miscreants who support Pakistan who could go to any extent to defy the tricolour.' Our government is committed to provide security to each and every citizen. Amarchy has no place in the state, chief minister Adityanath told newsmen here, his first comments on the clashes.

Adityanath warned of 'strict action' against the perpetrators of violence. Meanwhile, Union minister Giriraj Singh said that he felt the violence was pre-planned. "Had the deceased been Mohammad Ismayil instead of Chandan Gupta, there would have been a different debate in the media... We have to change this mindset," Singh told newsmen here. The Union minister said he felt the Kasganj incident was "pre-planned" adding that the Adityanath government would not spare anyone involved. He also referred to Bareilly district magistrate Raghendra Vikram Singh's comments on Facebook that appeared to blame right-wing groups for provoking communal clashes. "I have come to know that a bureaucrat has made some remarks on why some are raising 'Pakistan

Muradabad' slogans. I want to ask why not raise Pakistan Muradabad slogan. We raise this slogan as Pakistan kills our soldiers and it is involved in spreading cross border terrorism," the minister said. The DM's now-deleted post said a "strange trend" that had begun of late was to visit Muslim majority areas and raise slogans against Pakistan. "Why? Are they (Muslims) Pakistanis?" The same thing had happened in Khaalim village of Bareilly. Then stones were thrown, FIRs lodged," the officer's post had said.
A short service commission Army officer before joining the civil services, Raghendra Vikram Singh, 59, was last year posted as the district magistrate of Bareilly, about 100 km from Kasganj. He put up the Facebook post on Sunday, just two days after 22-year-old commerce student Chandan Gupta died in communal clashes that broke out in a Muslim-majority locality of Kasganj during a "Tiranga bike rally" by members of the local unit of the RSS-affiliated students' group ABVP. Minister of state for food processing Sadvhi Niranjani Jyoti said the incident should not be politicised. BJP MP Vinay Katiyar, however, told a news channel that those who "support Pakistan" were behind the violence.

"Earlier, there were no communal clashes in Kasganj district as all lived in harmony. But it has come to light that there are some miscreants who support Pakistan and will go to any extent to defy the tricolour. They need to be dealt with strictly," he said. Katiyar said that he was told that the injury was killed by the 'supporters of Pakistan'.

Shopian incident: JKNPP protests lodging of FIR against Army men

JAMMU, JAN 30 /-/- The Jammu and Kashmir National Panthers Party (JKNPP) today protested the registration of an FIR against Army men in connection with the alleged killing of two youths in Army firing in Shopian district.
The protesters, who were led by JKNPP chairman Harsh Dev Singh, protested at the Exhibition Ground here and accused the state government of appeasing anti-nationals and separatists in the Kashmir Valley. They shouted anti-government slogans and demanded that the FIR be withdrawn.
"Two civilians were killed when Army personnel fired at a stone-pelting mob in Shopian district of Jammu and Kashmir on Saturday, prompting chief minister Mehbooba Mufti to order an inquiry into the incident. Police had on Sunday filed an FIR under sections 302 (murder) and 307 (attempt to murder) of the Ranbir Penal Code against the personnel of 10, Garhwal unit, of the Army.

The Major, who led the Army personnel at the time of the incident, was also named in the FIR. Singh claimed "the Army men fired in self-defence when a mob attacked them". He alleged the government had earlier "buckled under pressure from separatists and directed police to register FIRs against Major Nitin Leetul Gogoi for countering stone-pelters during the bypoll in Srinagar on April 9 last year". Meanwhile, the ruling BJP today created a ruckus in the Legislative Council demanding an apology from a National Conference MLC for raising the issue of 'azadi' in the House. As the House began for the day, BJP members led by MLC Surinder Ambar had stood up and protested against NC MLC Showkat Ahmed Ganie.

The incident, which was demanded an apology from the NC legislator. They also entered into a verbal duel with NC members over the issue.
Later chairman Haji Anayat Ali intervened and told the house that words spoken by Ganie had been expunged so members should sit down. Ganie had on Monday raised the issue of 'azadi' on the floor of the Jammu and Kashmir Legislative Council, drawing angry protests from BJP members. Later, Ali expunged the NC member's remarks.

AIADMK expels over 150 office bearers in 2 districts

CHENNAI, JAN 30 /-/- Continuing with the crackdown on dissidents in the wake of its RK Nagar by-poll defeat, the ruling AIADMK in Tamil Nadu today removed its Coimbatore Lok Sabha MP from a key party post, while expelling more than 150 office bearers there and in Kancheepuram district.
AIADMK coordinator O Panneerselvam and co-coordinator K Palaniswami said in a joint statement that AP Nagarajan was being "relieved" as the presidium chairman of the party's Coimbatore unit. They also expelled 155 office-bearers of the party, including 137 from the party's Kancheepuram West and sub-units. Eighteen of those belonging to Coimbatore Urban were also removed: the Palaniswami and Panneerselvam, who merged the factions led by them in August 2017, had last month warned of action against those who go against the party line, following its loss in the December 21 RK Nagar assembly by-poll which was won by sidelined party leader TTV Dhinakaran. They had earlier expelled a number of functionaries, while stripping some of the key aides of Dhinakaran of party posts.
An angry Opposition protested over alleged worsening of law and order. Many Samajwadi Party legislators shouted slogans and carried placards. They threw paper balls at Naik, some of which even hit him, despite marshals trying to shield the Governor with the help of officers. Samajwadi Party legislator Rajesh Yadav blew a whistle during the 35-minute address to ensure that the Governor's voice was drowned in the din. As the Governor's address began, the entire Opposition - comprising members of the SP, Congress and the Bahujan Samaj Party - started shouting slogans against the government over the issue of law and order. BJP members added to the din, thumping their desks loudly whenever the governor lauded the government.

On May 15, 2017, the maiden session of the newly-elected UP Assembly opened with Governor Ram Naik being bombarded with paper balls during his address, as
