Smaller parties gear up to take on Cong and BJP in MP polls

BHOPAL, JULY 8 /- The Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh have been largely a fight between the Congress and the BJP for decades, but quite a few other political outfits are gearing up to enter the poll arena to take on the Big Two. Outfits like the Mayawati-led Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP), the Samajwadi Party (SP), the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), the Gandwan Ganatantra Party (GPP) and the newly founded SAPAKS Samaj, among others, are getting ready to throw their hats in the poll ring. Madhya Pradesh, which has a 230-member assembly, is scheduled to go to the polls by the year-end. The Congress, in Opposition since 2003, has named its veteran leader and former Union minister Kamal Nath as the new state president as part of its efforts to strengthen the party and dislodge the BJP from power. The BJP, too, has made changes in its organisation ahead of the polls. The party has appointed Rakesh Singh, the Lok Sabha MP from Jabalpur who has vast organisational experience, as its state unit chief.

The AAP has already soundly the poll bugle by announcing 39 candidates way ahead of the polls, stealing a march over others, at least in selection of contestants. The Delhi-based party has said it will contest all the 230 seats. AAP convener and Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal is scheduled to address a meeting at Indore on July 15, signaling start of its campaign. Besides, a rebel group of the Janata Dal United, led by former Union minister Sharad Yadav, is working on stitching a broad alliance with parties like the GGP, which has pockets of influence in tribal areas, and its breakaway faction, the Bharatiya Gondwan Party (BGP). The Samanya Pichhada Evam Apsankhyak Varg Samaj (General, Backward and Minority Welfare Society), better known as SAPAKS Samaj, an organisation born out of opposition to the governments reservation policy in jobs, promotion and education, has also decided to contest all the 230 seats. However, the BJP sees no threat from these smaller parties to its quest to retain power in the state and in fact thinks their presence will benefit it. "Politics in Madhya Pradesh is largely confined to two major parties, the BJP and the Congress. Their smaller parties) presence will benefit the BJP as they will divide the votes of the main opposition party (Congress)," state BJP spokesman Rajnish Agrawal told news agency PTL.

"If the Congress goes with the BSP, it will benefit the latter and not the former. All of them will cut into the votes and stop the BJP's victory march. Their presence will prove to be advantageous for the BJP," he said. The Congress is looking for an alliance with like-minded parties to prevent a split in votes and stop the BJP's victory march. State Congress spokesman Pankaj Chaturvedi said: "Though politics in Madhya Pradesh is bi-polar in nature, the Congress may have a trick with the like-minded parties like the BSP and the SP to prevent a split of votes, especially of SCs/STs and backward classes."

UP govt to dump employees in their 50s if found unfit for duty

LUCKNOW, JULY 8 /- The Uttar Pradesh government is contemplating "compulsory retirement" for employees aged 50 years and above if they are found neglecting their duty, an order that has not gone down well with around 16 lakh employees. "You all (departmental heads) should complete screening of all the employees above 50 years of age for compulsory retirement by July 31. For considering 50 years of age, the cut-off date will be March 31, 2018," a government order issued by additional chief secretary Mukul Singhal read. "It means employees who have completed 50 years by this date, will be considered for screening," the order said. It also said that according to rules, any government employee - whether temporary or permanent - can opt for retirement.

The order has, however, not gone down well with the employees, with the president of UP Secretariat Employees Association Yadavendra Mishra saying that such attempts were aimed at harassing employees. "It will not be tolerated," he said, adding that a meeting would be held here tomorrow to discuss the order and decide the future course of action. While such orders have been in vogue since 1986, the same was not being implemented in its spirit by several departments, said officials. Now to make sure that the order is implemented, all departments have been asked to complete screening of employees

Cong rakes up Panama Papers leak to corner Chhattisgarh CM's son

RAIPUR, JULY 8 /- The Chhattisgarh unit of the Congress claimed today that it has proof that "Abhishek Singh", the name revealed by International Consortium of Investigative Journalists in the Panama Papers, referred to chief minister Raman Singh's son Abhishek. Abhishek Singh is a BJP Lok Sabha MP from the state's Rajnandgaon constituency. "Ahead of changing the spelling of his name, Abhishek Singh was allegedly the director of a company and used to spell his name as Abbhishek. He had resigned from the company before contesting Lok Sabha elections in 2014," state Congress chief Bhupesh Baghel told reporters at a press conference in Raipur. According to documents revealed by ICIJ, "Abhishek Singh" was shown to be having offshore assets and the residential address mentioned in his foreign bank account was "Raman Medical Store, New Bus Stand, Ward Number 20, Vindhya vasini Ward, Kawardha", Baghel said. "Although chief minister Raman Singh and his son Abhishek have continuously denied knowing any person by the name Abhishek Singh, they have, at the same time, allegedly denied by the Congress to register an FIR for missing the address of a chief minister," he said. Abhishek Singh was allegedly the director of Chait Estates Private Limited and used to spell his name as Abhishek, before changing the spelling of his name to the current one, he alleged. Chait Estates Private Limited was registered in November 2011 for which the Gurgaon address of a person named Sonal Thakur was provided by the company, he said.

"As per the documents, initially, there were three directors - Abhishek Singh, son of Raman Singh, Aishwarya Hada, wife of Abhishek Singh and Sonal Thakur, daughter of Mr. Anandra Kalchuri," he alleged. He said that "Abhishek Singh" resigned from the post of director before contesting Lok Sabha polls in 2014. The signature, of director Abhishek Singh, on Form 32, Memorandum of Association and balance sheet of Chait Estates Private Limited and the signature on the affidavit submitted by Abhishek Singh during the 2014 Lok Sabha elections was virtually the same, Baghel alleged.
