

Need to ensure fruits of development reach poor: Naidu

NEW DELHI, AUG 9/- Paying tributes to freedom fighters on the 76th anniversary of the 'Quit India Movement', Rajya Sabha Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu today said it was now time to join hands to ensure that challenges being faced by the people also quit India forever.

He said there is a need to ensure fruits of development also reach the poor. On August 9, 1942, the 'Quit India Movement' was launched under the leadership of Mahatma Gandhi which resulted in freedom of the country from British rule five years later on August 15, 1947. "The Quit India Movement achieved its objectives long back. It is now time for all of us to join hands together to ensure that challenges being faced by the people also quit India forever," Naidu said. Noting that the Indian economy has emerged as the second largest in the world, the Chairman said there is a need to ensure that 'fruits of development also reach those who are living on the margins of society'.

Naidu said the country has come a long way since Independence and highlighted many achievements India has gained. "Amidst all these achievements, however, our failures are also stark. We have many social and economic problems that adversely affect our growth as a nation. We need to make concerted efforts to overcome these challenges," he said. The House paid homage to martyrs who gave their lives and also to those who suffered for the cause of India's freedom. (PTI)

Maha Cong attacks Centre on Quit India movement anniversary

MUMBAI, AUG 9/- On the occasion of Quit India movement anniversary, the Maharashtra Congress today attacked the Central government over "growing" incidents of mob lynchings and "attack" on the freedom of media.

Congress leaders, including state unit president Ashok Chavan, took out a "Tranga yatra" from the August Kranti Maidan to Mani Bhavan in South Mumbai, to mark the 76th anniversary of the movement.

Gowalia Tank Maidan is a park in central Mumbai where Mahatma Gandhi had delivered the Quit India speech on August 8, 1942 decreeing that the British must leave India immediately or else mass agitations would take place. Mani Bhavan, located in Gamdevi in south Mumbai, had served as the Mumbai headquarters of the Mahatma from 1917 to 1934.

Chavan said the current situation in the country is reminiscent of the British era before 1942.

"Just like in 1942, unrest is currently prevailing in the country. Incidents like mob lynchings are on the rise. The freedom of press is being gagged. Farmers are committing suicides; the backward classes are being attacked," Chavan said. He said the BJP-led NDA government should "quit". Chavan, Mumbai unit Congress president Sanjay Nirupam and other leaders paid homage to the martyrs of the freedom struggle at the August Kranti Maidan. (PTI)

Quit India day: Martyrs remembered at August Kranti Maidan

MUMBAI, AUG 9/- Rich tributes were paid to the martyrs of the freedom struggle today at an event held at the August Kranti Maidan here to mark the 76th anniversary of the Quit India Movement.

Various initiatives were organised to mark the anniversary of Quit India movement, a major milestone in the history of India's struggle for independence from the British rule.

Floral tributes were paid to freedom fighters and those who laid down their lives in the struggle for India's Independence at an event held at the August Kranti Maidan. This is the same ground from where Mahatma Gandhi gave the clarion call of do-or-die for independence.

"My tributes to the martyrs for the supreme sacrifice of life for the freedom of our country, Bharat," Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis tweeted. "The sacrifice of freedom fighters of the Quit India movement gave us independence from the oppressive British."

Today, on August Kranti Din, as we shape the foundation of New India, it is time we come together as one and overcome the hurdles in our path to prosperity" state education minister Vinod Joshi said, after paying tributes to martyrs. Speaking at a commemorative event here, NCP state unit chief Jayant Patil said, "Those who did not contribute in the Indian freedom struggle are now seeking account of the country's development."

The movement in August 1942, with Mahatma Gandhi's call for immediate independence, was launched at Mumbai's Gowalia Tank, which later came to be known as August Kranti Maidan due to its association with the historic occasion. (PTI)

Jaitley attends RS for first time after kidney transplant

NEW DELHI, AUG 9/- Union Minister Arun Jaitley today attended the proceedings in the Rajya Sabha for the first time after undergoing a kidney transplant in May. Jaitley, who has been recuperating after surgery, came to the House on a day when Rajya Sabha voted to elect JD (U) member Hariwansh as Deputy Chairman.

Rajya Sabha MPs, including Leader of Opposition and senior Congress leader Ghulam Nabi Azad, welcomed him back in the House. He is Leader of the House in the Rajya Sabha. Prime Minister Narendra Modi too expressed happiness on Jaitley's presence in the House.

acknowledged the greetings. Jaitley was holding the charge of Finance and Corporate Affairs ministries before the surgery. As he underwent the renal transplant on May 14, his ministerial charges were given to Piyush Goyal on an interim basis. While welcoming Jaitley, Azad suggested that he should take more rest. Modi, who joined the House after completion of the voting process, said, "I am happy that the Leader of the Rajya Sabha, Arun Jaitley is present today" and recovering.

Jaitley also accompanied Hariwansh to the designated seat of Deputy Chairman in the House, which is next to that of the Leader of Opposition. (PTI)

Kathua case witnesses threatened Crime Branch tells district police to file cases

JAMMU, AUG 9/- Jammu and Kashmir Police Crime Branch has asked the police to file FIRs based on the complaints of two witnesses in the rape and murder case of an eight-year-old who alleged they are being threatened by the family members and friends of the accused, officials said today.

The Crime Branch has also asked the district police in Kathua to provide protection to the two witnesses who made written complaints. They said they were being harassed and threatened by the friends and relatives of the accused and were under pressure to change their statements before the district and sessions court in Pathankot, Punjab, which is hearing the case. "Legal action is being taken in accordance with the law," a senior police official from Kathua said.

"The Crime Branch has forwarded the complaints to the Kathua district police and said the witnesses should be provided protection and FIR should be registered against those named by them," a Crime Branch official added. The names of the two witnesses were not immediately known. The Crime Branch cited last month's Supreme Court order directing protection of witnesses in the case of the child from a minority nomadic community who was allegedly kidnapped on January 10 in a village in Kathua and sexually assaulted before being killed. Her body was found on January 17. The witnesses include a government official whose testimony was recorded by the Crime Branch during its investigation into the case that shook the nation with its brutality. The Crime Branch has named 221 witnesses in its first charge sheet and more than 100 in its supplementary charge sheet filed on July 30. It has arrested eight people - Sanji Ram, custodian of the temple where the child was allegedly confined, his son Vishal, his nephew (a juvenile), friend Parvesh Kumar, two special police officers Deepak Khajuria alias 'Dipu' and Suresh, and two police officials, sub-inspector Arvind Datta and head constable Tilak Raj. The two police officials were arrested for destroying evidence and have been dismissed from service. The Crime Branch will also bring the issue before the court in Pathankot where the case was transferred on directions of the Supreme Court, officials said. Members of the Kathua Bar Association had physically prevented Crime Branch officials from submitting a charge sheet on April 9 in Kathua. Defence lawyers had argued in court that they should be given advance information about witnesses appearing before the court. The court last week agreed that names of those not facing threats could be shared with the defence. The Crime Branch submitted an application before the Pathankot court giving reasons for non-disclosure of names of witnesses in advance due to security reasons. It said some vested groups in Hiranagar and Kathua area had started a well-organised campaign against the investigating agency and were resorting to large scale propaganda on electronic, print and social media to "mislead the masses". "One such instance where a material witness in the case was influenced by some political leaders backing the large scale propaganda on the notice of the honourable trial court," the application said. It asserted that the case has acquired "communal overtones" with some political leaders backing the accused in the case.
