

Rupee reverses gains ahead of key macro data, down 7 paise

MUMBAI, June 12 /--/ The rupee washed out its initial gains to close down by 7 paise at 67.49 against the US currency due to a lagged dollar demand from banks and importers.

A rally in domestic equities and a subdued dollar overseas failed to lift the forex sentiment.

The release of latest consumer price index-based inflation data for May and the IIP data for April largely kept the forex market sentiment volatile.

Also, some caution ahead of the highly-anticipated two-day US Federal Reserve meet amid expectations of interest rate hike weighed on the trading front.

"Markets are awaiting the outcome of the monetary policy meeting from the three central banks (FOMC, ECB and BoJ). Fed is expected to raise its interest rates tomorrow while ECB likely to debate to extend the timeline of its current QE (quantitative easing) programme," Anand James, Chief Market Strategist at Geojit Financial Services said.

There was import order dollar demand, mainly from state run oil marketing companies (OMCs) and surpassed mild selling of the greenback by exporters, a forex dealer said.

Meanwhile, Indian bourses soared to fresh four-month high, joining a global rally earlier sparked by the historic summit between the US and North Korea on denuclearisation of the Korean peninsula.

Bond markets, however, witnessed a mixed trend and the 10-year benchmark bond yield finished higher at 7.97 per cent.

Crude oil prices also edged higher today with the Brent crude gaining 30 cents at USD 76.76 per barrel and West Texas Intermediate 20 cents at USD 66.30.

The rupee resumed lower at 67.48 from overnight close of 67.42 at the interbank foreign exchange (forex) market on bouts of dollar demand.

It lost further ground to hit a low of 67.32 in mid-morning deals before a trend reversal.

After touching a fresh intra-day high of 67.35 briefly during the fade trade, the local unit once again turned volatile and recovered all its gains to close at 67.49, showing a loss of 7 paise, or 0.10 per cent.
