

Infighting in BJD turns ugly, MP Baijayant Panda hit by stone

BHUBANESWAR, MAY 30 /- The infighting in the ruling BJD turned ugly today when party MP Baijayant Panda was hit by a stone as his supporters and some party members pelted stones at one another in Mahanga area.

The incident happened when some party members hurled stones and eggs at a procession led by Panda after he inaugurated a drinking water project in the area in Kendrapara district, police said. Panda was seen hit by a stone and he sat down on the ground surrounded by his supporters. Later police escorted the MP up to a chopper.

Soon his supporters pelted stones at the other party members. Immediate police intervention controlled the situation. "Forget stones and eggs, they can't cow me down even if they use bullet. These MPLAD funded projects - 5.2 million litre of drinking water," Panda tweeted immediately after the incident.

Panda, MP of Kendrapara, had allocated funds for the overhead water tank at Jatiparilo village under Mahanga Assembly segment represented by state's health and family welfare minister Pratap Jena. While local BJD leaders and minister's supporters alleged that they were not invited to the inauguration function, Panda rejected the charge and claimed that all the local leaders, including the local MLA, were invited. "Even names of local leaders were written in the plaque," Panda told reporters. Panda blamed some "Babus" (officers) for the hooliganism in the ruling BJD and hoped party president Naveen Patnaik would definitely take steps after being aware of the incident.

The MP said: "I have been in the party since its inception in 1997. In the first 17 years, we had a policy against hooliganism and infighting. But things have changed in the last three years. "When some Babus (officers) sitting in AC rooms have started deciding the party activities, it is not a good sign." Panda, who was recently removed from the post of spokesman of BJD's parliamentary party, said he had already taken up the matter of indiscipline in the party with the president.

"I have raised the issue in BJD's parliamentary party meeting. I am sure once Naveen Babu gets to know the truth, he will certainly take steps," Panda told newsmen.

Lalu violated MLA Cooperative Society bye-laws: Sushil

PATNA, MAY 30 /- Senior BJP leader Sushil Modi today alleged that RJD chief Lalu Prasad got two plots of land allotted in his name in violation of the MLA Cooperative Society's bye-laws.

The state government had reserved 15 acres of land for 30 years to the MLA Cooperative Society at Kauliyana Nagar for allotment of residential plots to MPs, MLAs and MLCs. The 30-year lease will come to end in December 2017. Apart from Prasad, the chairman of the MLA Cooperative Society, Jai Prakash Narayan Yadav, an RJD Lok Sabha member, also got two plots allotted in his name in violation of the bye-laws of the Society, Modi alleged. The BJP leader said that the bye-laws allowed allotment of only one plot to a member of the Society.

Besides, plots situated adjacent to those of Prasad and his wife Rabi Devi, too had been allotted to Prasad's brother-in-law Anirudh Prasad Yadav and his close confidant and party Rajya Sabha MP Prem Chand Gupta to make Prasad's plot size bigger, he claimed describing the allotment as a "scam".

Patna district magistrate has prepared detailed report on the irregularities of the Cooperative Society which was submitted to the chief minister three months back, Modi said. "CM Nitish Kumar should make the DM report public and also cancel the plots of those who have violated the bye-laws," Modi demanded. Former Bihar minister said that penalty should be imposed on Lalu Prasad and others for using the plots for commercial purposes. He said that Prasad is, at present, occupying for all practical purposes five plots of the society - numbering 207, 208, 209, 210 and 211. "As per the bye-laws of the Cooperative Society which was submitted to the chief minister three months back, Modi demanded. Cong to work on broader alliance of secular forces, says Gogoi

GUWAHATI, MAY 30 /- Former Assam chief minister Tarun Gogoi today said the Congress will start working on a broader alliance of all secular forces in the state as a divided opposition will not be able to stop the BJP's victory march.

The Congress leader also said that he was open to the idea of having an alliance with the Asom Gana Parishad (AGP), the BJP's ruling ally. "The Opposition is divided and that is why BJP and Narendra Modi are winning elections. This is the time we must unite," he said. "Thavetol Sonia Gandhi also about this. We have to compromise here and there on smaller issues for the alliance to stop the communal forces."

Gogoi told news agency PTI in an interview here. Appreciating the party president's move to invite the Opposition, the former Assam chief minister said the alliance must be based on the basic principles of secularism, democratic values, tolerance and practical liberal policies of like-minded parties across India to resist the communal forces.

"Narendra Modi is running a one-man show. Federalism is at stake. You can fool a person only sometimes, not always," Gogoi said. The veteran Congress politician expressed optimism that the circumstances will lead to a united opposition in the future. Citing the case of Emergency, Gogoi said: "You can take the example of Emer-

Jharkhand Cong seeks judicial probe into lynching incidents

JAMSHEDPUR, MAY 30 /- The Congress today demanded a judicial inquiry into the incidents of lynching that had claimed nine lives in Kolhan region of Jharkhand since May 10 last. Jharkhand Congress state president (JPC) President Sukhdeo Bhagat, M.L.A., also expressed dissatisfaction over the ongoing investigating by the state police.

"The people of the state have lost faith in the government which miserably failed to act despite a rumour of child lifting doing the rounds since May 10 last, that ultimately claimed nine lives in Kolhan region comprising East and West Singhbhum and Seraikela-Kharswan districts," Bhagat told a press conference. Bhagat who on Monday met the family members of three persons who were killed on suspicion of being child lifters at Nagadhi in East Singhbhum district on May 18 last, demanded a judicial inquiry into the lynching incidents to "expose the reason" that led to the killing of "innocent persons". The JPC president claimed that the incidents were pre-planned and had taken place under the patronage of the government.
