LYRICAL NIGHT OF SILENCE

Night silent singing lyrical song. Beautiful moon full shining above. Casting golden beam on sea dark deep down there. Thinking of you lyrical silence like sweet song here. Pristine silence whispering winds. Breaking with force of love touching. Leaves of grand Pipal tree standing firm in winds. Soft delicate leaves like heart broken keep falling. Walking in Mount Harriet National Park. Watching moon beautiful with heart at spark. Beautiful mystifying nature dark. Black stone or Kala Pathar weeping in dark. Brave young souls sacrificing. Life for the sake of Nation. Great sons thinking of freedom at last. When pushed down the Kala Pathar crying seldom. Great souls sacrificing all. Lost life in free air all. Sound of freedom heard everywhere. Beautiful Mount Harriet is where. Long dark night of past finally over. Moon beautiful shining now everywhere. Motivating us to build the nation. In homage to great martyred sons of nation. United we standing well moon shining. Brave only ready and willing sacrificing. All for the sake of country never complaining. Sun bright sure to rise tomorrow if all keep working. Building nation stronger than ever. Wiping tears with love bringing cheer crying never. Country men all smiling on each other. Brick by brick building nation with willing care. Lyrical night of silence passing by. Moments in history here gone by. Nation first me later fragrance sweet here. Motto of life for Indians here felt everywhere. (Yogesh) Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (Wildlife)
